

THE ABBA INITIATIVE

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

BE IT KNOWN TO EVERYBODY THAT:

This Employment Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into this _____, in the City of Cagayan de Oro, by and between:

THE ABBA INITIATIVE, OPC, a stock corporation duly organized and registered under the laws of the Philippines, with principal address at 3501 Loyola Drive, Phase 2, Xavier Estates, Cagayan de Oro City 9000, hereinafter referred to as the "Employer";

- and -

_____, of legal age, [_____], single/married, and a resident of _____, hereinafter referred to as the "Employee".

AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

WHEREAS, the Employer wishes to procure the services of the Employee and the Employee wishes to be employed, under the terms and conditions set forth below;

WHEREAS, the parties to this Agreement wish to enter into a written expression of their relationship as Employer and Employee;

THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the above stated premises, the parties hereby bind themselves with the following terms and conditions:

1. Employment

- 1.1. The Employee's employment under this Agreement shall begin on _____.
- 1.2. The Employee agrees that he will serve the Employer faithfully and to the best of the Employee's ability during the term of employment, under the direction of the supervisor, manager, or head of the company.
- 1.3. The Employer may from time to time change the nature of Employee's duties and job title. The Employee shall perform such duties as assigned to him/her from time to time by the Employer.
- 1.4. The Employee shall undergo training that will teach him/her knowledge and skills that will help him/her develop as an employee and perform his/her duties well.

2. Probationary Period

- 2.1. The Employee shall undergo six (6) months probationary period starting from the first day of work. The first three (3) months comprise the Probationary Lite Phase, during which the Employee will participate in foundational training led by YAHSHUA University. This training is designed to fully equip them for their role, covering key areas such as company culture, the legal basics relevant to their position, YAHSHUA-ABBA communication skills, and essential leadership skills. To ease them into onboarding, they will initially be assigned support tasks aligned with their position, allowing them to build familiarity with their role in a guided, progressive manner.

The following three (3) months, which is the Full Probationary Phase, is structured to allow the employee to apply all they have learned, taking on the full scope of responsibilities for their role.

- 2.2. The Employee will undergo weekly evaluations to assess their progress and determine if they are meeting the training standards. If the Employee does not meet these standards within the initial period, the probationary phase may be extended for up to six (6) additional months to allow for additional development.
- 2.3. The Employee shall undergo essential training with the primary goal of equipping them for the next phase of employment. This training program, outlined in Annex A, represents an investment of ₱50,000 spread evenly over the course of the six-month probationary period and is designed to build the skills and knowledge employees need for long-term success in their role. Should an employee choose to resign before completing the probationary period, they agree to cover the training cost of ₱50,000, reflecting the company's commitment to their professional growth and development.
- 2.4. The Employee shall be paid a daily rate, on a no-work-no-pay basis, during the probationary period.
- 2.5. The Employee may acquire regular status upon evaluation and recommendation of the Employee's immediate superior by or before the end of the six (6) months probationary period. Upon regularization, the Employee shall be entitled to all company benefits and privileges enjoyed by regular employees as indicated in the company guidelines and policies contained in the Employee Handbook.
- 2.6. During the probationary period, either party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon written notice of not less than fifteen (15) days prior the effective date of termination, subject to the provisions of Subsection 4.2.
- 2.7. Upon the expiration of the probationary period, the Employer may terminate the employment if the Employee does not satisfactorily meet the standards provided in this Agreement or for any of the just or authorized causes provided by law, including analogous causes specified in the company guidelines and policies contained in the Employee Handbook.

3. Salary

- 3.1. The Employee's salary shall be confirmed, documented and sent by the manager to the Employee via confidential email. The Employee shall be paid a monthly rate salary after regularization.
- 3.2. The Employee will be paid every 15th and 30th day of every month through direct deposit in the Employee's RCBC payroll account, which will be opened by the Employer for the Employee during the first week of the Employee's employment.
- 3.3. The Employee who has become a regular employee shall be entitled to additional benefits set forth in the company guidelines and policies contained in the Employee Handbook.

4. Termination/Resignation

- 4.1. Employment may be terminated by either party at any time in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the company guidelines and policies contained in the Employee Handbook.
- 4.2. For the protection of the Employer's interests, the Employee may terminate this Agreement provided that the Employee has been cleared from the Employee's obligations, including and not limited to, any financial obligation to the Employer or any third party or entity wherein the Employer acted as co-guarantor, or as an agent of said third party for the collection of such financial obligation.
- 4.3. If the Employee terminates this Agreement before the end of the six-month probationary period, the Employee shall be liable to pay a prorated portion of the training cost stated under Section 2.3 of this Agreement, based on the number of months completed. The Employee hereby authorizes the Employer to deduct this prorated amount from their final pay. If any balance remains after the deduction, the Employee agrees to pay the remaining balance directly to the Employer.
- 4.4. That notwithstanding anything contained herein, should the Employee be unable to report and perform the duties specified hereunder by reason of illness or incapacity for a period of twenty (20) consecutive days, then, at any time within five (5) days after the expiration of such period, the Employee shall be terminated on that ground.
- 4.5. The Employee shall give a written notice of the Employee's intention to resign from employment at least thirty working (30) days prior to the effective date of resignation.

5. Confidential Information

- 5.1. For purposes of this Section 5, "Confidential Information" shall be limited to information clearly identified as confidential.

5.2. The Employee represents and warrants that he/she is free of any contractual restrictions and restraints in entering into this Agreement and has not, and will not, in connection with this employment divulge any Confidential Information to any prior employer or to any other third party.

5.3. The Employee recognizes and acknowledges:

(i) that the Employer, its affiliates and its clients have business and technical information which they keep in confidence;

(ii) that the goodwill and competitive ability of the Employer depends, among other things, upon its keeping such information confidential; and

(iii) that unauthorized use or disclosure of such Confidential Information would irreparably damage the Employer, its affiliates and its clients.

By reason of the Employee's duties, the Employee may come into possession of such Confidential Information. The Employee shall not disclose confidential information to anyone including the Employee's spouse, family, next of kin, friends and other third persons not affiliated with the Employer. The Employee is also prohibited from disclosing Confidential Information to co-employees, supervisors and employees belonging to other departments, divisions or teams.

5.4. The Employee agrees that, during the term of the Employee's employment, and forever thereafter, the Employee shall keep confidential all Confidential Information provided by the Employer, its affiliates or by its clients, excepting only such information as is already generally known to the public, and that he shall not release, use, or disclose the same except with the prior written permission of the Employer. The Employee's obligation to keep such information confidential shall survive the termination or cancellation of this Agreement or of the Employee's employment, even if occasioned by the Employer's breach or the Employee's wrongful termination. In case of any breach by the Employee of the Employee's obligations with respect to Confidential Information of the Employer's clients, such clients shall be deemed third party beneficiaries of this Agreement and may bring an action to enforce its terms directly against the Employee. The Employer, its affiliates and its clients, or any one of them, may seek and obtain injunctive relief against the breach or threatened breach of the Employee's obligations under this paragraph, in addition to any other legal remedies which may be available.

5.5. All papers, memoranda, notes, reports, charts, programs, data, or other documents of any kind relating to the business of the Employer, its affiliates or its clients shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Employer and shall be turned over to the Employer upon the termination of the Employee's employment. The Employee shall not make or permit to be made, except in pursuance of the Employee's duties and for the sole use and account of the Employer, any copies, abstracts or summaries of any document referred to above.

- 5.6. It is understood that the Employee's undertaking in the foregoing paragraphs of this Section 5 shall be binding upon the Employee during and subsequent to the Employee's employment with the Employer and upon the Employee's heirs, successors, representatives and assigns, and that this entire Section 5 shall inure to the benefit of the Employer and its successors and assigns.

6. Non-Competition

- 6.1. During the term of this Agreement, for any reason:
- (i) The Employee shall not offer or provide products or services in direct competition to the Employer as a freelance provider while being employed by the Employer.
 - (ii) The Employee shall not solicit or offer employment to, or advise anyone else to offer employment to, any employee of the Employer.
- 6.2. For twelve (12) months following termination of the Employee's employment, for any reason:
- (i) The Employee shall not, directly or indirectly, either as an individual, employee, partner, or officer, director or stockholder of any corporation, solicit or accept, or advise anyone else to solicit or accept business which is competitive with the Employer from any client, or from the personnel of any client, with whom the Employee transacted any business or from whom the Employee solicited any business on behalf of the Employer, during the time the Employee was employed by the Employer;
 - (ii) The Employee shall not solicit or offer employment to, or advise anyone else to offer employment to, any employee of the Employer.
- 6.3. The Employee hereby acknowledges that the limitations as to time, scope and character or nature placed on subsequent employment are reasonable and fair and will not prevent or materially impair the Employee's ability to earn a livelihood.

7. Ownership of Work Product

- 7.1. During the Employee's employment, the Employee will be expected to do creative work which may lead to inventions, discoveries, developments, modifications, procedures, ideas, innovations, systems, programs, know-how, literary properties, and other work products (collectively the "Work Product"). The Employee agrees that the Work Product of the Employee during employment by the Employer shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Employer and the Employee hereby assigns to the Employer all rights to the Work Product. To the extent that any such Work Product is copyrightable, the copyright shall be deemed owned by the employer in accordance with the Intellectual Property Code of the Philippines.
- 7.2. Consideration for such-assignment is hereby acknowledged. The Employer may, at its discretion, affix such notices and take such steps as it deems reasonably appropriate to secure and perfect copyright protection in the Work Product anywhere in the world. To the extent that any such Work Product may be patentable, the Employer may take such steps as it deems reasonably appropriate, at its expense, to file and prosecute any application for patents in the name of the Employee or otherwise in the Philippines and elsewhere and the Employee shall, on request, assign any such applications and any patents resulting therefrom to the Employer. The Employee shall take all such further steps as may be reasonably requested by the Employer to perfect the Employer's sole and exclusive ownership of the Work Product.

8. Miscellaneous

8.1. This Agreement:

- (i) may not be amended except in writing executed by both parties;
- (ii) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Philippines; and
- (iii) shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Employer and the Employee and their respective successors, executors, administrators, legatees, distributes, and permitted assigns.

8.2. If any portion of this Agreement is deemed to be invalid or unenforceable, the rest of this Agreement shall nevertheless continue in effect and any court may enforce any provision to the extent permitted by law, even though the entire Agreement may not be enforced. Neither party may assign its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto affixed their signatures on the date and place first stated above.

Employee

RONNEL E. BAYRON, CPA

President

Yahshua Outsourcing Worldwide, Inc.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Republic of the Philippines)
City of Cagayan de Oro) s.s.

BEFORE ME, this ____ day of _____, 20____ in the City of Cagayan de Oro, Philippines personally appeared the following:

Ronnel E. Bayron, Res. Cert. No. _____ issued at City of Cagayan de Oro, Philippines on _____.

_____, Res. Cert. No. _____ issued at _____, Philippines on _____.

Known to me to be the same persons who executed the foregoing instrument, and they acknowledged to me that the same is their free and voluntary act.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my notarial seal, the day, year and place above written.

Doc. No. _____;
Page No. _____;
Book No. _____;
Series of _____.

ANNEX A

Training Program

I. Probationary Lite Phase

During the Probationary Lite Phase, employees engage in foundational training designed to equip them with essential skills, knowledge, and values necessary for their roles. This phase focuses on gradual immersion into company culture, legal basics, and practical support tasks to prepare them for their future responsibilities.

A. Technical Skills Training

1. YAHSHUA Consultant Training, Part I – Foundations of YAHSHUA Payroll/ Accounting Services
2. YAHSHUA Consultant Training, Part II – Customer Service Excellence in YAHSHUA Solutions
3. YAHSHUA Consultant Training, Part III – Hands-on Training with YAHSHUA/ABBA Payroll-HRIS & Accounting Software
4. Google & Other Collaboration Tools – Training in using collaboration tools such as Google Calendar, Zoom, Slack, Telegram, etc.

B. Soft Skills Development

1. Effective Client Communication – Training in professional emailing, calling, and messaging
2. Presentation Skills – Delivering impactful presentations for YAHSHUA Solutions and effectively handling presentation question

C. YAHSHUA-ABBA Culture & Policies Orientation

1. New Hire Mentoring – Emphasizing Mission, Vision, and Values for alignment
2. I-care Foundations – Equipping with essential core values grounded in GOD's love and grace, emphasizing their application in daily life and work.
3. YAHSHUA-ABBA Company Policies – Comprehensive study of essential company policies

D. Leadership Training

1. 7 Habits of Highly Effective People – Building habits for personal and professional effectiveness
2. The Character Traits of a YAHSHUA Leader – Core leadership traits for sustainable growth and integrity

II. Full Probationary Phase

During the Full Probationary Phase, employees are expected to actively apply the knowledge, skills, and values acquired in the Lite Phase to demonstrate their capabilities in a real-world, task-focused environment.

A. Applied Technical Proficiency

- Independent Handling of Payroll & Accounting Services
Employees will manage assigned payroll and accounting services with guidance, ensuring accuracy and efficiency.
- Customer Service Implementation
Employees will independently address client inquiries and requests, demonstrating their mastery of YAHSHUA's customer service standards.
- Software Utilization
Employees will utilize YAHSHUA-ABBA Payroll-HRIS/Accounting Software to manage tasks effectively and troubleshoot basic client issues.

B. Enhanced Communication and Presentation

- Client Communication Execution
Employees will independently handle client emails, calls, and messages, applying learned communication techniques to maintain professionalism and clarity.
- Solution Presentation
Employees will prepare and deliver presentations on YAHSHUA Solutions, showcasing their ability to communicate product value and solutions confidently.

C. Culture Integration & Policy Adherence

- Active Participation in YAHSHUA-ABBA Culture
Employees will demonstrate alignment with YAHSHUA's mission, vision, and values through daily interactions and decision-making.
- Policy Application
Employees are expected to consistently adhere to company policies, reflecting a solid understanding of the operational standards.

D. Demonstrating Leadership Qualities

- Application of 7 Habits of Highly Effective People
Employees will integrate the 7 Habits in their workflow, enhancing productivity, decision-making, and team collaboration.
- Exemplifying YAHSHUA Leader Traits
Employees will exhibit key YAHSHUA leadership traits, fostering a positive and responsible workplace environment.

