

YAHSHUA OUTSOURCING WORLDWIDE INC
EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

CONGRATULATIONS!

Welcome to YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc. You have joined a team of outstanding professionals and an organization with a long standing reputation of excellence. We are confident that you will find this to be an exciting work environment that supports your professional development and personal growth. It is our goal to continuously improve in providing business and individual solutions as well as in providing a motivating work environment for our employees.

This handbook contains our Company policies, procedures and benefits and is designed to answer questions that you may have regarding your employment with us. You will also receive additional information specifically detailing the responsibilities that are unique to your position. Please read this guide and the other information with which you will be provided carefully so that you will be informed and better prepared to start your training. If you have questions, your supervisors, managers and business unit head will be happy to answer them for you.

We hope that you find your new employment to be challenging and personally rewarding. Your success will not only benefit the Company but also allow for your growth in the organization.

It is a pleasure to welcome you to our team!

Thank you and God bless,

Ptr. Ronnel Edrolin Bayron

President

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc.

Table of Contents

ABOUT THIS HANDBOOK	1
PURPOSE OF THIS HANDBOOK	2
INTRODUCTION	3
COMPANY HISTORY AND BUSINESS PROFILE	3
VISION: YAHSHUA Solutions a way of life	3
MISSION: Make impossible things possible.	3
PHILOSOPHY: Everything has a Solution.	3
VALUE PROPOSITION: More for Less	3
CORE VALUES	4
FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST	4
HUMILITY	4
FAMILY (Trust, Sharing)	4
URGENCY in Execution	4
CREATIVITY (Learning)	4
EXCELLENCE (Credibility, Reliability)	4
PRIVACY AND SECURITY	4
YAHSHUA QUALITY POLICY STATEMENT	5
YAHSHUA is committed to achieve customer satisfaction by:	5
YAHSHUA QUALITY OBJECTIVES	5
DIVERSITY POLICY	5
Diversity Commitment	5
Equal Employment Opportunity	5
Employment of Relatives	6
EMPLOYMENT	6
Employee Classification Categories	6
Personnel Records	7
Training	7
Pre-employment Policy	7
Background and Reference Check	7
Documentary Requirements	8
Terms and Conditions of Employment	8
Probationary Status	8
Job Duties	8
Hours of Work / Attendance	8
Performance Evaluation	9
Promotion	9
Salary Increase	9
COMPENSATION	10
Payday	10
Salary Arrangements	10
Time Records	10
Lunch Break	11
Overtime Work	11
Overtime Pay	11
Errors in Payroll	11
BENEFITS	12
Holidays	12
Vacations	12
Sick Leave	12
13th Month Pay	13
Maternity Leave	13
Paternity Leave	13
Employee Events and Privileges	14
General iCare	14
Monthly Film Showing	14
Team Building	14
Christmas Party	14
BackBreak	14
Free Chair Massage	14
Free GYM HIIT Session	14
Q2	14
WORKPLACE EXPECTATIONS	15
Personal Appearance and Hygiene	15
Attire and Grooming	15
Alcohol and Illegal Substance Abuse	16
Smoke-Free Workplace Policy	16
Conflict of Interest Policy	16
Assisting a Competition	17

Competing Against YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc.	17
Supplying YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc.,	17
Personal Financial Interest	17
Inside Information and insider Trading	17
What is material information?	18
Outside Activities, Other Employment and Business Involvement	18
Information Asset and Property Policy	19
Proprietary and Confidential Information	19
Intellectual Property	20
Confidential Proprietary Nonpublic Information	20
Handling Employees Personal Information	22
Inadvertent Disclosure	22
Third Party Software	22
Use of Company Assets and Premises Policy	23
Cybersecurity and Use of Digital Devices	23
Internet Usage	24
Using Personal Social Media at Work	24
Speaking Publicly and/or Using Social Media Representing the Company	25
Use of Cell phones or Mobile Phones at Work	25
Right to Monitor	26
The Company’s Right to Inspection	26
Lost and Found	26
CODE OF CONDUCT	26
Introduction	26
The Role of Managers	27
Purpose	27
Scope	27
Compliance	27
Responsibilities to Report	28
Non-Retaliation Policy	28
Investigations	28
Work Environment	28
Reporting, Recording and Retaining Operational Information	29
Proper Reporting of Financial Transactions	29
Employee Relationships	30
Solicitation and Distribution	31
Levels of Disciplinary actions	31
Verbal Warning	31
Written Warning	31
Suspension	31
Termination	31
Code of Discipline	31
Classification of Offenses	32
Sample List of Offenses per Class	32
Disciplinary Procedures	37
Separation of Employment	38
Resignation	38
Job Abandonment	38
Termination	38
Clearance Procedure	39
Return of Company Property	39
NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THIS EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK	39
AUTHORITIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES	40
CONCLUSIONS	40
EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK	41
ACKNOWLEDGMENT, RECEIPT AND CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT	41

ABOUT THIS HANDBOOK

To create and maintain the best work environment possible, YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., has developed the policies and procedures as listed in this guide as well as those detailed in the other manuals and policies of the Company. As part of your training, you are expected to learn and adhere to all such policies.

Neither this handbook nor any other Company document confers any contractual right; either express or implied, to remain in the Company's employ. Nor does it guarantee any fixed terms and conditions of your employment. Your employment is not for any specific time and may be terminated at will with or without cause and without prior notice by the Company, or you may resign for any reason at any time. No supervisor, manager, business unit head or other representative of the Company (except the president) has the authority to enter into agreement for employment for any specific period of time or to make any agreement contrary to above.

The procedures, practices, policies and benefits described here may be modified or discontinued from time to time without prior notice. We will try to inform you of any changes as they occur.

Any reference to one gender applies to both genders.

This handbook and the information in it should be treated as confidential. No portion of this Handbook should be disclosed to others, except YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., employees and others affiliated with the Company whose knowledge of the information is required in the normal course of business.

This Handbook is applicable to other companies in the YAHSHUA Group of Companies and shall be used as reference for procedure, practices, policies and benefits for other YAHSHUA companies even as the handbook bears the name YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide, Inc.

PURPOSE OF THIS HANDBOOK

YAHSHUA OUTSOURCING WORLDWIDE INC., has prepared this handbook to provide employees with a guide to the Company's terms and conditions of employment, its policies and procedures, employees benefit provisions and the Code of Conduct expected from all employees, interns, consultants and other members of the YAHSHUA OUTSOURCING WORLDWIDE INC., community.

The handbook must be read in conjunction with the Statement of Particulars of Employment and/or Offer Letter of Employment. It is not a contract of employment, or intended to create contractual obligations for the Company of any kind.

The main purpose of this handbook is to help new staff settle into the Company quickly by providing information in one comprehensive guide. The company values the talents and abilities of our employees and seeks to foster an open, cooperative and dynamic environment where employees and the company can thrive together.

The Company aspires to provide an employee-friendly environment as we achieve even more demanding challenges. We are committed to serve clients and provide a working environment where both the clients and employees best interests are served.

If you have specific questions or require any further information or assistance on any matter regarding your employment with YAHSHUA OUTSOURCING WORLDWIDE INC., please consult your Supervisor or Manager who will be pleased to assist you.

The Company reserves the right to amend the provisions set forth on this handbook as deemed necessary and will communicate such changes as soon as practicable.

INTRODUCTION

COMPANY HISTORY AND BUSINESS PROFILE

We are YAHSHUA OUTSOURCING WORLDWIDE INC. a business solution and service provider. We started as a growing family that started as a small office in Damilag, Bukidnon. It was in 2008 when the fathers of the company thought about providing a large enterprise service to small businesses. They observed that the majority of small company owners are tied to their day-to-day operations because of unstable and unreliable systems. They do not even know the real score of their business. And so they thought, "Why don't we provide them these services at an affordable cost?"

This gave birth to YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc. with the mission to bring peace of mind to its clients by making the impossible possible through business solutions and services. A mission that is a noble undertaking in itself. An advocacy to help its clients. An advocacy to be a blessing to its clients.

Our mission and our advocacy is part of our culture as YAHSHUANS. The word YAHSHUA is based on the Hebrew name of Jesus Christ which is Yeshua. In YAHSHUA, faith in Jesus Christ is the center of the company. We operate by faith in Jesus Christ as the centre of it. We believe that our success is all by God's grace. God is our source of all. He is the source of all our blessings.

With all these, YAHSHUANS are winners, for our confidence is in Jesus Christ, who gives us the favor, wisdom, and the victory everyday.

To be a blessing to our clients and to the company we will do an excellent job. Whatever it takes. And because of this, we are here to be a blessing to our clients and help them succeed.

That is who we are. We are YAHSHUA.

VISION: YAHSHUA Solutions a way of life

We are a fast-growing family that looks forward to seeing the day when the YAHSHUA Solutions have become part of how we do things every single day. From the smallest to the biggest things we do, YAHSHUA shall be there to make life better, because we can see that the YAHSHUA Solutions shall become a way of life.

MISSION: Make impossible things possible.

At YAHSHUA, we believe that we can do the impossible things through JESUS CHRIST who strengthens us. With GOD on our side, giving us heavenly wisdom, we make impossible things possible for others, to live a better life.

PHILOSOPHY: Everything has a Solution.

We are confident that everything has a solution! We see challenges as bread to make us stronger. And we know that every problem has a hidden jewel waiting to be discovered.

VALUE PROPOSITION: More for Less

As YAHSHUANS, we give more for less. More Solutions for less fee. More output even when less is expected. We go the extra mile for others because GOD has given us His love and grace beyond and above what we can ask or imagine. We are blessed to be a blessing for others.

CORE VALUES

FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST

Jesus Christ at the center of everything we do.
We trust Him to bring us to success and to greater heights.
He suffered and died to save us from the life of condemnation.
Christ is the One who gave us life more abundantly.

HUMILITY

Without Jesus, we are nothing.
We only prosper because GOD loves us through JESUS.
Only Through Him, that we have the ability to overcome obstacles and win in life.
All glory to GOD alone, forever! Amen!

AMBITION

WE have a big GOD who gave us a great future.
WE believe for great things in life because JESUS already took away our curse with His blood and gave us His life of favor and blessing.

FAMILY (Trust, Sharing)

We are here as members of a big CHRIST-centered family and not just employees.
We trust each other.
We share with our family.
We take good care of every member of this family.

URGENCY in Execution

Our solutions will make people’s lives better.
They need these solutions now!
We do things fast and efficiently now!

CREATIVITY (Learning)

We always find ways to make life better.
We challenge our current knowledge and understanding, believing that GOD has given us wisdom to make better solutions and make existing solutions better.

EXCELLENCE (Credibility, Reliability)

We excel by disciplining ourselves to continuously improve.
Our excellence makes us reliable and credible to others.

PRIVACY AND SECURITY

WE respect the privacy of every person.
And we will secure every information entrusted to us by others.

YAHSHUA QUALITY POLICY STATEMENT

YAHSHUA is committed to continually provide business and individual solutions that meet customer and stakeholder expectations and to comply with statutory and regulatory requirements.

The Management Board and the Employees are responsible for Quality Assurance through compliance of the Quality Management System according to the ISO 9001:2015 standards.

YAHSHUA is committed to achieve customer satisfaction by:

continual improvements of this Quality Management System;

the compliance of the Philippine Data Privacy Act of 2012; and partnering with our customers to understand their needs and obtain the best possible solutions.

YAHSHUA QUALITY OBJECTIVES

CUSTOMERS

- Achieve 99% contract
- Reduction of customer complaints
- Improve on-time delivery of service output

EMPLOYEES

- Continuous improvement of employee competence

REGULATORY

- Achieve 100% regulatory compliance
- Reduction of Data Privacy and Security Complaints

DIVERSITY POLICY

Diversity Commitment

We respect the individuality of all guests and employees, a fact which guides the way we do business every day. WE strive to create a comfortable, welcoming, atmosphere for all our staff and guests. All of our employees and their individual viewpoints, beliefs, experiences and backgrounds are highly valued, and we are dedicated to making the most of each person’s abilities and talents.

Equal Employment Opportunity

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., provides equal employment opportunities to all applications for employment without regard to race, creed, color, religion, gender, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin age, disability, genetic information, marital status, ancestry, or any other characteristics protected in accordance to national and local laws. Furthermore, no person shall be discriminated against due to a physical disability which does not prevent the individual from performing the essential functions of the job, with or without reasonable accommodation. Everyone will be given equal opportunity commensurate with their abilities. YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc.,complies with applicable national and local laws governing nondiscrimination in employment in every location in which the Company has facilities. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including hiring, placement, promotion, termination, leave of absence, compensation and training. We earnestly seek the cooperation of all employees in helping to maintain this policy. Throughout this Handbook, the interchangeable use of masculine and feminine pronouns is in no way intended to exclude members of the opposite sex.

Employment of Relatives

Relatives of employees are considered for employment at YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., as long as there is no direct reporting relationship or actual/potential conflict of supervision, safety, security, morale, or conflict of interest. Employees shall notify their business unit head or manager if a relative has applied for a job with the Company. "Relatives" for purposes of this policy are defined as spouse, domestic partner, party to a civilian union, father, mother, father-in-law, mother-in-law, grandfather, grandmother, son, son-in-law, daughter, daughter-in-law, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, brother, sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, step relatives, cousins and domestic partner relatives.

EMPLOYMENT

Employee Classification Categories

For purposes of salary administration and eligibility for overtime payments and employee benefits, YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc. classifies its employees and other workers as follows:

Full-time regular employees - employees hired to work the Company's regular, full-time, 40 hour workweek on a regular basis. Such employees are qualified, as authorized, for overtime, leave and other benefits as mandated by law or through this policy.

Probationary employees - new employees or new hires, who for a period of time, is being observed, trained and tested to enable the employer to ascertain the suitability of new employees for their job functions.

Interns and on-the-job-trainees - a student or trainee who works without pay for a stipulated hours to gain relevant skills, knowledge and work experience in their field of specialization.

Nonexempt employees - employees who are required and/or authorized to be paid overtime at the rate of time and an additional 25% of their regular rate of pay for all hours worked beyond forty hours in a workweek, in accordance with applicable national and local wage and hour laws.

Exempt employees - employees who are not required to be paid overtime at the rate of time, in accordance with applicable national and local wage and hour laws for all hours worked beyond forty hours in a workweek.

All employees shall be informed of their initial employment classification and their status as an exempt or nonexempt employee during their onboarding orientation session. Should an employee change their job position during their employment as a result of a promotion, transfer or otherwise, they will be informed by the Human Resources Department of any change in their exemption status.

Please direct any questions regarding your employment classification or exemption status to the Human Resources Department.

These above classifications do not guarantee employment for any specified period of time. The right to terminate the employment is retained by both the employee and the Company.

Personnel Records

Upon being hired, all employees shall receive forms to be completed. [For a complete list of forms see Annex A. New Hire Onboarding Checklist of the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Inc., Onboarding Policy and Procedure.

Each employee will be instructed by the Human Resources on how to complete these forms. All information in these records is confidential. In the event that someone was to inquire about an employee's employment, only those inquiries mandated by national or local laws will be disclosed without the consent of the Data Subject. Otherwise, permission, consent or approval shall be sought prior to disclosing any personal information of all employees of the Company. [For more information regarding personnel records, refer to the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., Data Protection and Privacy Policy].

When employees are hired, they shall also be asked to provide their SSS, Philhealth, Pagibig and TIN Numbers for payroll purposes. Such information shall be confidential and shall be used for applicable payroll purposes only.

It is the policy of YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., to maintain complete and accurate records. Employees are responsible for notifying the Human Resources Department immediately of any changes relating to personal information such as home address, telephone number, marital status and number/name of dependents promptly and accurately.

Training

Properly trained employees shall ensure continuity of quality business solutions and services to all our business partners, stakeholders as well as the existing and prospective clients. Therefore, YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., shall provide a training program to all employees. From time to time, the Company shall conduct training sessions to ensure the continuous development of all employees. These training sessions are important to keep employees up to date on new procedures and business practices. If you are requested to be at a training session, your attendance is mandatory.

Pre-employment PolicyBackground and Reference Check

To ensure that individuals who join the Company are qualified and that a safe and productive work environment is maintained, it is our policy to conduct pre-employment background checks on all applicants who accept an offer of employment from the company. A background check may include verification of any information indicated in the applicant's resume or application form.

All offers of employment are determined after receipt of a background check report that is acceptable to the Company. Reports are kept confidential and can only be viewed by individuals involved in the hiring process.

Should there be information from the background check that would lead the Company to deny employment, a copy of the report will be reported to the applicant, and the applicant will have the opportunity to dispute the report's accuracy. Background checks may include a criminal record check.

Additional checks such as a driving record or credit card report may be made for particular job categories if appropriate and job related.

The Company also reserves the right to conduct a background check for current employees to determine for promotion or reassignment in the same manner as described above.

Documentary Requirements

The Company reserves the right to require from the newly hired employees the following requirements prior to their start dates:

ID Picture	- 1 pc., size: 2x2
NBI Clearance	- Original copy
Transcript of Record	- Photocopy, or as required for the position
Diploma	- Photocopy, or as required for the position
NSO Birth Certificate	- Photocopy
SSS No. and ID	- Photocopy
Philhealth No. and ID	- Photocopy
Pag Ibig No. and ID	- Photocopy
TIN No. And ID	- Photocopy
Marriage Certificate	- Photocopy, for married individuals only
Child’s Birth Certificate	- if applicable
Employment Certificate	- Previous employment, as applicable
Medical Certificate	- Chest X-ray, Urinalysis, Stool Exam, Blood Test and Drug Test
Residence Sketch

It is a Company Policy that all applicants must submit a Medical Test Result as a Pre-employment Requirement before the employment date or prior to receiving an Offer Letter of Employment. Refusal to submit to testing will result in disqualification of further employment consideration.

Terms and Conditions of Employment

Probationary Status

All new Employees will be placed on probation upon commencement of employment with the Company. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Statement of Particulars or Offer Letter of Employment, the probationary period will run for six (6) months, and is intended to give the employee the opportunity to demonstrate his/her ability to achieve a satisfactory level of performance. This also gives the Supervisor or Manager an opportunity to evaluate the employee’s performance and conduct on the job. If in the opinion of the Supervisor, the employee has not successfully completed the probationary period, the Company may, at its discretion, extend the probationary period. Alternatively, failure to perform to a satisfactory standard during the probationary period may lead to termination of his/her employment.

Job Duties

Employees will be provided with a written job description and/or job profile during their induction. They are also expected to undertake other duties commensurate to their abilities, particularly when other employees are absent from work and/or at times of peak activity and/or in an emergency situation. It is a condition of their contract of employment with the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc.

Hours of Work / Attendance

Unless otherwise stipulated in the Statement of Particular or Offer Letter of Employment, work days will be from Monday to Saturday . The employee will be required to put in minimum work shifts of eight (8) hours daily.

Meal periods are important to productivity and employee health. Employees who work at least four (4) consecutive hours will be provided with a meal break not exceeding 60 minutes. The meal period will not be included in the total hours of work per day and is not compensable.

Neither lunch period nor rest break(s) may be used to account for an employee’s late arrival or early departure or to cover time off for other purposes e.g. rest breaks may not be accumulated to extend a meal period, and rest breaks may not be combined to allow one-half hour long break.

Timely and regular attendance is an expectation of performance for all employees. To ensure adequate staffing, positive employee morale, and to meet expected productivity standards throughout the Company, employees will be held accountable for adhering to their applicable workplace schedule which is from 8:30 AM to 5:30PM.

Employees who come in to work over an hour late will not be allowed in the Company premises, unless the tardiness is of valid reasons such as in occurrence of natural calamities or disasters - fire, flood, earthquake etc. or grave family emergencies (a matter of life and death).

Employees are also required to use the Company's assigned RFID Cards and the Mountable Time Capture Device to record their Time in and Time Out when reporting to or leaving from work. Should the RFID cards or the Mountable Capture Device be inoperative, all employees are required to use the Company's Timekeeping App (YAHSHUA Timekeeping) to record their Time in and Time Out when reporting to or leaving from work. Failure to do so will be grounds for disciplinary sanction. Logging in for someone else is considered dishonesty and falsification. Thus sanctions will be implemented accordingly.

Vacation Leave/s must be scheduled and applied for two (2) weeks in advance. Sick Leave/s may be used in case of emergency or sudden illness without prior scheduling. However, employees will be required to submit a Medical certificate on the 3rd day of absence. For employees who have exhausted their existing leave credits, days applied for a sick leave will be deducted against pay. Patterns of absenteeism or tardiness may result in disciplinary action and may not be covered by remaining leave balances.

Performance Evaluation

Performance Evaluations and reviews shall be conducted within the 180 days from a new employee's hired date or during the Probationary period of a new employee. After that there will be a formal, written performance evaluation, at least annually, unless business considerations require a delay in the evaluation. At this review, your supervisor, manager or business unit head shall have an opportunity to discuss your strengths, weaknesses, areas for development and potential for advancement. Your career objectives as well as your commitment to your job position will be a valuable part of this review. This is useful for employees to know where they stand, improve and continue progressing in their careers.

A performance appraisal does not guarantee you a salary increase nor does it guarantee any continued employment with the Company or change the employee status. Merit increases are based on Company performance and financial and are not always guaranteed. A performance review does not always result in an automatic salary increase

[for more detailed information regarding Performance Evaluation refer to the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., Employee Management Manual].

Promotion

In evaluating an employee for a promotion, job performance, attendance, work related attitude, skills, knowledge, experience qualifications, training, ability, recommendation from his/her supervisor, manager or business unit head, and other factors appropriate for the promotion. [for detailed information regarding Promotion refer to the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., Employee Management Manual].

Salary Increase

The Company conducts its salary review at least once a year unless there is a government mandated wage increase that is promulgated which necessitates the review of the same. A salary review may be conducted more frequently for a newly created position, or based on a recent promotion. Although the Company's salary and daily wage schedules are adjusted on a regular basis, salary uplifts are not guaranteed.

Any changes to their employees salary will be communicated to them in writing and will be reflected on their payslip. If they have questions on their individual salary, they are requested to raise the matter to their Supervisor.

COMPENSATION

Payday

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., operates on a quincenal payroll, which means that you will be paid every 15th and 30th or 31st of each month. The pay period for the 15th payroll starts from the 6th and ends at the 20th day of the previous month. Meanwhile the pay period for the 30th payroll starts from the 21st day of the previous month and ends that the 5th day of the current month. Salary or wage will be deposited on individual RCBC Bank Payroll Accounts of each employee.

Salary Arrangements

Employees will be paid every 15th and 30th day of every month through direct deposit in their RCBC payroll account, which will be opened by the Company for the employee during the first week of their employment.

Payroll cutoffs are on the 5th and 20th of every month. Should an employee's date of employment fall after payroll cut off, payment will be made on the succeeding deadline, inclusive of any backdated pay.

It is the Company's policy that employee salaries will only be processed through their payroll account and paid out through their RCBC Cash Card. Employees will receive their payroll advice payslip through the official YAHSHUA E-mail of an employee as soon as payroll is processed.

In the event of a lost Cash Card, the Human Resource department must be notified through email before a replacement card can be issued.

Except for extreme emergencies, no salary advances will be made or allowed.

If, for any reason, you are underpaid, an appropriate adjustment will be made on your next salary payment. If there is an overpayment in your salary, the Company reserves the right to make a deduction from your future salary payments, and/or require you to make repayments to the Company.

Time Records

It is mandatory that all employees shall log in and out using their individual RFID Cards or by using the YAHSHUA Timekeeper App. The information saved in the time management system is accurate and the hours recorded shall be used in calculating and generating your paycheck. Log in only when you are ready to work. You do not have to log in or out for any paid breaks however, you must log out and log in for your lunch break.

If you forget to log in or log out, immediately inform your business unit head, manager or supervisor, who will in return shall advise the Human Resources for such an incident. The business unit head, manager or supervisor shall guarantee the attendance of the employee.

All work performed by an employee on behalf of the Company should be recorded. If there is an error in using the RFID Card or the YAHSHUA Timekeeper App, the employee should report or inform the Human Resources Department immediately.

You are prohibited to log in or log out for someone else or have someone log in or log out for you. Engaging in such conduct is grounds for immediate termination.

All employees shall be responsible for ensuring that their time records are accurate and complete. Falsification of time records will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Lunch Break

All employees are required to take their lunch break every 12:00 Noon until 1:00PM every day, during the workweek. Employees must log out and log in for these unpaid meal periods. The uninterrupted lunch break or meal period does not count as worked hours.

Employees are responsible for keeping their supervisors, managers or business unit head informed about any changes to their work schedules, including changes involving meal periods. Any employee who takes unauthorized meals or who extends the authorized meal period beyond approved limits can be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

Overtime Work

Overtime Work is work performed beyond eight (8) hours in a regular working day or on a holiday.

Employees are required to obtain approval from managers prior to the use of overtime. Employees who anticipate the need for overtime to complete the week's work must notify the Supervisor in advance and obtain approval before working hours beyond his/her regular schedule. Applications must be filled through the YAHSHUA Payroll Online (website) or the YAHSHUA Timekeeper (mobile app).

All overtime work shall be controlled and authorized by the Manager except in cases of emergency when the highest official present is authorized to grant overtime work.

Overtime work however shall not offset undertime work on a particular day.

The Company may require the employee to perform overtime work in any of the following cases:

- When the work is necessary to prevent loss or damage to the service/s;
- When the completion or continuation of the work that has been started is necessary to prevent serious drawback on the business or operations of the Company,
- When the work is necessary to meet delivery schedules,
- When there is urgent work to be performed on project/s and/or equipment to avoid serious loss or damage to company, or some other cause of similar nature.

Overtime Pay

Work performed beyond eight (8) hours of a regular working day shall be compensated with an additional equivalent to the regular wage plus at least twenty-five percent (25%) thereof.

Work performed beyond eight (8) hours on a holiday or rest day shall be compensated with an additional equivalent to the rate of the first eight (8) hours on a holiday or rest day plus at least thirty (30%) thereof.

Errors in Payroll

Please immediately report to your supervisor, manager or business unit head on any errors or mistakes on your payroll advice or payslip. If you have not been paid because of lacking time records, salary for those hours will be made or carried over to the next payroll period.

BENEFITS

Holidays

Work performed on a Regular Holiday shall be paid 200% of the regular wage of an employee. Work performed on a Special Non-working Holiday will be paid 130% of the regular wage of an employee.

The Company recognizes the following holidays:

Regular or Legal Holidays

New Year	- January 1
Maundy Thursday	- Movable Date
Good Friday	- Movable Date
Eidul Fitr	- Movable Date
Eidul Adha	- Movable Date
Araw ng Kagitingan	- April 9
Labor Day	- May 1
Independence Day	- June 12
National Heroes Day	- August 27
Bonifacio Day	- November 30
Christmas Day	- December 25
Rizal Day	- December 30

Special Holidays - includes local holidays as declared by the government on a yearly basis

Cagayan de Oro Charter Day	- June 15
Ninoy Aquino Day	- August 21
Cagayan de Oro City Day	- August 28
All Saints Day	- November 1
Last Day of the Year	- December 31

Vacations

Regular employees are entitled to (5) five days paid vacation leave after one year of employment. The eligibility for the paid vacation leave shall be based on the employee’s “vacation year” which is his or her anniversary date of hire. This means that your vacation year begins on the date you started to work with the Company and runs until the day before that date on the next calendar day. Earned but unused vacation leave credits will not be carried over to the next vacation year.

Earned but unused vacation leave credits shall not be converted into cash. The Company advises all employees to take advantage of their vacation leave.

After an employee’s paid vacation leave credits have been exhausted, all applications for a vacation leave shall be deductible against the regular salary of an employee.

Sick Leave

Regular employees are entitled to (5) five days paid sick leave after one year of employment based on the anniversary date of hire. An employee’s earned but unused paid sick leave credits can be carried over to the next year.

Should an employee’s vacation leave credits accumulate to an equivalent of one month, the accumulated sick leave credits can be converted into cash. The accumulated sick leave pay shall be based on the current regular wage of an employee.

After an employee’s paid sick leave credits have been exhausted, all absences because of sickness or illnesses shall be deductible against the regular salary of an employee.

If an employee is absent for more than three consecutive working days, he or she must provide documentation for the use of his or her sick leave credits. Paid sick leave may also be used when an employee of immediate family member is ill or injured, or to receive medical care, treatment, diagnosis or preventive medical care, or victims of domestic violence or a sex offense.

13th Month Pay

All employees of YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., who worked for at least (1) month during the calendar year shall be entitled to receive a 13th Month Pay regardless of their position, designation or employment. The computation for the 13th Month Pay is as follows:

$$\text{Employee's Total Basic Pay (for the Whole Calendar Year) / 12 months}$$

The 13th Month Pay is given before the 24th day of December.

Maternity Leave

The Maternity Leave benefit shall be granted to all female employees who are either married or unmarried. This leave benefit allows 60 days leave for normal delivery, abortion or miscarriage, and 78 days in case of Caesarean section delivery.

Lactation Period

Nursing Employees are entitled to a paid lactation period of not less than 40 minutes for every eight-hour working period. In addition to the unpaid regular one-hour meal period, to breastfeed or express milk. There may be several lactation periods of short duration during the work day; and each lactation period should include the time it takes a nursing employee to get to and from the workplace lactation station.

Paternity Leave

The Paternity Leave benefit is granted to a married male employee allowing seven (7) days leave with continued compensation thereon, on the condition that his legitimate spouse has delivered a child or suffered a miscarriage for purposes of enabling him to effectively lend support to his wife in her period of recovery or in nursing of the newly born child.

The following are the conditions for entitlement of the Paternity Leave benefit:

- He is an employee of the Company at the time of the delivery of his child;
- His wife has given birth (up to four deliveries), suffers a miscarriage of his child;
- He is cohabiting with his spouse at the time that she give birth or suffered a miscarriage;
- He has applied for a Paternity Leave from the Company within reasonable period of time from the expected date of delivery by his pregnant spouse, or within such period as may be provided by the Company. In case of a miscarriage, prior application for paternity leave shall not be required.
- In the event that the paternity leave is not availed of, it shall not be convertible into cash and shall not be cumulative.

Employee Events and Privileges

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., organizes various events and provides privileges for all employees. These include but not limited to the following:

General iCare

iCare is a values formation activity which aims to foster personal growth and develop a deeper consciousness of one's purpose and existence. It is also designed to reinforce the core values of YAHSHUA. The General iCare is held every first Monday of the Month. Though attendance is not mandatory, all employees are encouraged to join. Free meals are given after the general iCare session.

Monthly Film Showing

Once a month, the Company sponsors a film showing session for all employees. It is designed to help employees revitalize, renew and refresh from the usual workplace demands. Films shown during this activity shall have inspiring themes on which employees can get important life lessons they can reflect on.

The film showing is free and part of the employee's working hours.

Team Building

Within the calendar year, the Company invests in a team building activity to encourage collaboration among employees; to motivate them to work together; to develop their strengths and to address weaknesses. All expenses shall be shouldered by the Company and all employees shall participate.

Christmas Party

The Company organizes a Christmas Party for all employees to emphasize Christmas spirit and the joy of the holiday season. The Christmas Party also offers a change of scenery that allows employees to relax and enjoy without the usual pressure and deadlines from work.

The Christmas Party shall be held once a year during the month of December. All expenses shall be shouldered by the Company. Although attendance is not mandatory, all employees are expected to join the event.

BackBreak

From Monday through Friday at 10:00 AM and 3:00 PM, every YAHSHUA, as well as the visitors, interns and applicants shall do the BackBreak. It is a holistic pursuit that aims to promote a healthy and wellness lifestyle among all employees. This is to break the sedentary working condition in the workplace. Participation is a must.

Free Chair Massage

As part of the healthy and wellness program of the Company, all employees can avail of a free 15-minute chair massage. Interested employees shall inform the HR and arrange a schedule for the use of the chair massage.

Free GYM HIIT Session

To promote wellness in the workplace, the Company facilitates a HIIT (High Intensity Interval Training) Session for all employees. The HIIT Session is free and all employees are encouraged to join and participate. The HIIT Session shall be held every Monday afternoon.

Q2

Quadrant 2 or Q2 is one of the four quadrants of Time Management that pertains to long-term development of personal skills and business strategy. It is one of the exciting and rewarding benefits for the Company Managers. Q2 is all about preparation and planning, capability improvement, relationship building, values orientation, opportunity to learn and recognizing new opportunities, personal growth and recreation. The Company believes that spending time on these strategic, high-impact tasks will lead to extraordinary productivity. As a result, Q2 can help Managers to bring more value to the business and also help them grow personally and professionally.

WORKPLACE EXPECTATIONS

Personal Appearance and Hygiene

All employees are required to maintain a clean, neat appearance. The following are basic guidelines for evaluating your personal appearance.

Hair should be clean, neatly trimmed and combed. Only natural hair colors shall be permitted.

Jewelry should be kept simple. Women are allowed to wear one small earring per ear. No other jewelry is allowed on one's nose, tongue, and other visible body parts while working.

Hands should be clean and well groomed. Fingernails should be trimmed. Clear, natural or neutral color nail polish is recommended. (Employees are advised to use good judgement in selecting nail polish colors.).

Women shall exercise care in the use of make-up. Moderation should prevail. Minimal fragrance is allowed.

For men, facial hair may be worn if kept well-trimmed.

Natural and artificial scents may become a distraction from a well-functioning workplace and are also subject to this policy.

Recognizing and respecting the diversity of applicants and our employees, there may be circumstances when the Company provides accommodations to any applicable grooming and appearance standards. Under the National and local anti-discrimination laws, the Company may consider an employee's grooming and appearance

Failure to comply with these policies may undergo disciplinary actions, up to and including termination of employment.

Attire and Grooming

It is important for all employees to project a professional image while at work with appropriate work clothing. Employees are required to wear the Company uniform from Mondays to Fridays. Dress code on Saturdays are casual and are not listed on the INAPPROPRIATE working attire below.

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., also allows corporate/business casual/smart casual working clothes. However, an employee's position may also inform how they should dress. If an employee is frequently meeting with clients and prospects, he / she is required to conform to a more formal dress code.

Employees are expected to be neat, clean and well-groomed while on the job. And the Company expects every employee and intern to practice good hygiene at all times.

The following are considered INAPPROPRIATE working attire for all employees and interns:

- Open-toed sandals (men)
- Slippers (men and women)
- Spaghetti-strapped tops / blouses (women)
- Tank tops or revealing shirts /blouses (women)
- Micro skirts, mini-skirts or skirts cut two (2) inches or more above the knee (women)
- shirts with inappropriate, vulgar, offensive markings or design (men and women)
- Short pants (men and women)
- Tattered jeans (men and women)
- Overly exposed body tattoos (men and women)
- Piercings and earrings (men)

Any employee who is improperly dressed will be counseled or even in severe cases may be sent home to change clothes. Continued disregard of this policy may be a cause for disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Alcohol and Illegal Substance Abuse

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., expects all its employees, interns, consultants and other members of the YAHSHUA community to be mentally and physically fit for work, to report to work fit for duty, and to remain fit while on duty. Furthermore, the Company observes a longstanding commitment to provide a safe and productive work environment and is thus committed to the elimination of alcohol and illegal substance use and abuse in the workplace.

To ensure compliance with its Substance Abuse Policy, the Company reserves the right to conduct unannounced searches and random drug testing. Any positive result from a substance test may result in disciplinary action including dismissal. All employees are required to submit to an annual, random drug and alcohol testing when requested to do so. Failure to submit to a drug/alcohol test upon request by the management may also result in disciplinary actions up to and including termination of employment.

[For more detailed information on the Alcohol and Illegal Substance Abuse, see the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc. Alcohol and Drug Free Workplace Policy.]

Smoke-Free Workplace Policy

It is the policy of the Company to prohibit smoking in all Company premises to provide and maintain a safe and healthy work environment for all employees, interns, consultants and other members of the company community. The law defines smoking as the “act of lighting, smoking or carrying a lighted or smoldering cigar, cigarette or pipe of any kind.”

The smoke-free workplace policy applies to:

- All Company buildings
- All company-sponsored off-site conferences and meetings
- All vehicles owned or leased by the company
- All visitors (customers and vendors) to the Company premises
- All employees and consultants working in Company premises
- All employees, temporary employees and student interns
- All employees at the client’s or prospective client’s premises

Employees who violate the smoking policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Conflict of Interest Policy

A conflict of interest occurs when you advance a personal interest at the expense of the Company’s interests. Some conflicts can be avoided through careful foresight and planning. Others are unavoidable. In some cases, the mere potential for or perception of a conflict can be problematic.

Hence, employees, interns, consultants and other members of the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., community shall be prohibited to be involved in any activities which could give rise to, or could be perceived to give rise to a conflict of interest. Your business loyalty should rest in placing the Company’s interest first, including those of its customers, clients, shareholders and stakeholders before your personal interests.

A “conflict of interest” arises in a situation where personal activities, interests or dealings may actually, potentially or be perceived to:

- Impair ability to perform job duties as an employee, intern or consultant
- Have a negative impact on the company’s reputation or
- Result in a personal gain or advantage due to an employee’s position in the Company

Company properties, information or business opportunities may not be used for personal gain.

Here are some circumstances/instances that can potentially lead to conflict of interest with YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc.,:

Assisting a Competition

An obvious conflict of interest is providing assistance to an organization that markets products and services in competition with the company's current or potential product or service offering. Employees, interns and consultants may not, without the company's consent, work for such an organization in any capacity such as a part time employee, a consultant or as a member of its board of directors.

Competing Against YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc.

Also prohibited are individual pursuits that could conflict with the company's current or future business interest. Employees may engage in outside activities that generally relate to technology, business advice of other products or services that the company offers its clients. Often, such activities are in sufficient conflict with the company's current or future business interests and are thereby prohibited.

Because YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., is rapidly expanding into new lines of business and areas of interest, the company will constantly redraw lines of acceptable activity. It is therefore the employees, interns and consultants responsibility to seek advice in advance and on a periodic basis with the management to determine whether planned activity will compete with any of the company's actual or potential business.

Supplying YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc.,

Unless approved in advance by the management, an employee, intern or consultant may not be a supplier, represent a supplier, work for a supplier or be a member of a supplier's Board of Directors while being employed with the company. In addition, employees, interns and consultants are prohibited to accept money or benefits of any kind for any services they may provide to a supplier in connection with its business with the company.

Personal Financial Interest

Employees, interns and consultants are prohibited to have a financial interest in any organization that will create or give the appearance of a conflict of interest with YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc. Such organizations include suppliers, clients, competitors or any organization that the company does business with. In all cases, a financial interest is improper if the amount of investment or the particular organization in which an employee, intern or consultant have invested could - when viewed objectively by another person - influence their actions as an employee, intern and consultant in the company.

Additionally, an employee, intern or consultant must not accept money or by stock options or other securities in any situations where there is a question that the offer was motivated in whole or in part by his / her employment with YAHSHUA OUTSOURCING WORLDWIDE INC., or if the investment violates the company's existing policies, directives and guidelines.

An employee, intern or consultant must not attempt to evade these investment restrictions by acting indirectly through anyone else.

Inside Information and insider Trading

In the course of their employment at YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., employees, interns and consultants may become aware of information about the company that has not been made public. The use or disclosure of such nonpublic or "inside" information about YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., to another company for financial or other benefits is not only unethical but is also a violation of the law.

It is unlawful for any person who has "material" nonpublic information about the company to trade these information, or to trade stocks or other securities, including derivatives or to disclose such information to others. Violation of such laws may result in civil and criminal penalties including fines and jail sentences. YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., will not tolerate the improper use of inside information. These prohibitions also apply anywhere where the company does business.

What is material information?

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., defines material inside information as information which is not available to the general public and which could influence a reasonable investor or client to buy, sell or hold the company's products or services. While it is not possible to identify in advance all information that could be viewed as material information, the company's financial performance including unannounced earnings and dividend actions, acquisitions or other business combinations, divestitures, major new products or service announcements, significant advances in research and other significant activities affecting the company is considered inside or material information. Thus it is unacceptable to disclose this information and disregard this policy.

As with investments, employees, interns and consultants should not evade these guidelines by acting through anyone else or by giving inside information to others for their use even if they will not financially benefit from it.

Outside Activities, Other Employment and Business Involvement

Employees, interns and consultants are permitted to engage in outside work or to hold other jobs but are subject to certain restrictions as outlined below:

Activities and conduct of outside jobs must not compete with, conflict with or compromise the Company's interests or adversely affect job performance and the ability to fulfill all job responsibilities.

Employees are prohibited from performing any services for customers on non-working time that are normally performed by the Company. This prohibition also extends to the unauthorized use of any Company tools or equipment and the unauthorized use or application of any confidential information.

Employees are cautioned to carefully consider the demands that additional work activity will create before accepting outside employment. Outside employment will not be considered an excuse for poor job performance, absenteeism, tardiness, leaving early, refusal to travel or refusal to work overtime or different hours. If the Company determines that an employee's outside work interferes with his/her performance, the employee may be asked to discontinue the outside employment.

Employees who have accepted outside employment may not be used paid sick leave to work on outside jobs. Fraudulent use of sick leave will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

While the Company may not be able to list all possible events or circumstances that could lead to a potential conflict of interest, YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., trusts the good judgement and discretion of its employees, interns and consultants to avoid such situations.

Whether or not an actual potential conflict of interest exists depends upon the facts of each case. If an employee, intern or consultant becomes aware that a conflict of interest might exist, seek clarification and guidance before proceeding or, if the activity has commenced, immediately cease the activity.

Employees, interns and consultants with a question on Conflict of Interest should seek advice from the Management before engaging in any activity, transaction or relationship that might give rise to a conflict of interest. Or they can also seek review from their manager or from the Human Resource Management.

Failure to comply with this policy can lead to disciplinary actions up to and including termination of employment and lawsuits.

Information Asset and Property Policy

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., has extensive assets of great value. These assets include valuable proprietary information such as the Company's intellectual property and confidential information including physical property and systems. Protecting all of these assets is critical. Their loss, theft, misuse or unauthorized disclosure can jeopardize the Company's future.

All employees, interns, consultants and other members of the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., community are responsible to personally protect the Company assets in general as well as those entrusted to each of them. This includes those assets that an employee, intern or consultant have been authorized to provide to other employees, contract personnel, clients or others.

To do this, all employees, consultants and interns should know and understand the Company's security protocols, controls, processes, practices and guidelines in handling these information. They should be alert to situations that could lead to the loss, misuse, theft or unauthorized disclosure of the Company assets. Furthermore, they should report those situations to the Company's Data Protection Officer or their immediate manager as soon as these situations come to their attention.

Proprietary and Confidential Information

Being employed at YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc. employees, interns and consultants will have access to information that the company considers proprietary. Most of the Company's proprietary information is confidential and often subject to copyright, patent or intellectual property and legal rights. This also includes information that has resulted from the hard work and innovation of employees and investments made by the Company.

The Company's competitive advantage from this information would be lost if such information was improperly disclosed, even if the disclosure is unintentional or unplanned. To help maintain the value of these important information, it is critical that all employees, interns and consultants follow all the Company's data privacy and security protocol and guidelines and that disclosure or distribution of any information is as authorized by the management.

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., proprietary information is any information that the Company owns including but not limited to the following:

- Information about current and future products, services or research
- Pending projects and proposals
- Business plans or projections
- Earnings and other financial information
- Personnel information including executive and organizational changes
- Software in object or source code form
- Hardware, devices and peripherals developed and produced by the Company
- Compensation data
- Marketing strategies
- Personnel/payroll records
- Conversations between any persons associated with the Company

Intellectual Property

At YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., employees, interns and consultants may have access to and may develop intellectual property. Upon joining the Company, all employees, interns and consultants signed an Employee Agreement in which he/she assumed specific obligations which can result into the research and development of intellectual property. Signing the employment Agreement means that an employee, intern or consultant transfer to the Company all of his / her rights on certain intellectual property he / she may develop while employed by the Company. Such intellectual property includes ideas, inventions, software, templates, publications and other materials relating to the company's current or anticipated offerings, business research or development. Subject to the law of this country, this applies no matter where or when at work or after hours the employee, intern or consultant may have created such intellectual property. All employees, interns and consultants must disclose that intellectual property to the company and protect it like any other proprietary information.

What employees should do:

- Lock or secure confidential information at all times
- Shred confidential documents when they are no longer needed
- Make sure confidential information is viewed on secure devices
- Only disclose information to other employees when it is necessary and authorized
- Keep confidential documents inside the Company premises unless it is absolutely necessary to move them

What employees should not do:

- Use confidential information for any personal benefit of profit
- Disclose confidential information to anyone outside the Company
- Replicate confidential documents and files or store them on unsecure devices or portable storage media

Confidential Proprietary Nonpublic Information

While employed at YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., employees, interns and consultants may have access to confidential proprietary nonpublic information. This type of information contains personally identifiable material about the Company employees, customer or clients and suppliers such as their names, addresses, phone numbers or Social Security System and financial data. Hence, it is the responsibility of each employee, intern and consultant of the Company to maintain confidentiality of information entrusted to them by the Company, except when disclosure is duly authorized or legally mandated.

When dealing with confidential information:

- Never view it for non-business reasons,
- Never use it for personal gain or advantage and
- Never share it without appropriate approval

Should an employee, intern or consultant be required to share confidential information, he /she will make sure that it is appropriately protected and secured. This obligation continues even after an employee, intern or consultant is no longer employed by the Company. Revealing YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., is a violation of this policy and may be illegal.

Confidential information includes all nonpublic information that is valuable to the Company and may cause threat to its customers or clients if disclosed. There are four types of confidential proprietary nonpublic information the Company considered confidential.

Customer information includes any information about a specific customer that can be used to personally identify a customer including name, address, Social Security number, phone numbers, contact names and billing data such as balanced owned or energy usage and bank accounts.

What employees, interns and consultants should do:

- Never disclose any information about a customer/client to any third party without the customers documented approval and management authorization unless an employee, intern, consultant is legally required to do so (for example, under a court-issued subpoena); or the information is necessary to be disclosed for the

Company to provide utility services such as to provide customer with billing for management services

Never change, update, manipulate any account or the account of a family member, friend or co-worker.

Always follow the company's data privacy policy and procedures in handling confidential information.

Employee Information includes information about a specific employee including name, home address, Social Security number, payroll account, personal phone numbers, benefits, images, photographs and performance evaluations.

What employees, interns and consultants should do:

Never disclose such information to another employee, shareholder or a third party without appropriate approval.

Forward requests for employee information and references only to your human resources representative.

Intellectual property and trade secrets are developed or collected by YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., from a variety of legitimate sources. The company uses these assets and information to achieve its business goals or to evaluate the merits of its own products, services and marketing methods and to develop strategic plans as well as products and services. Information and materials related to competitive strategy, trading, investment, cost and financing methods are examples of these types of information.

If an employee, intern or consultant has accessed accidentally or unethically any intellectual property, he / she should keep it confidential and immediately review it with his / her supervisor to determine the right course of action.

It is against the law and this policy to develop or gather intellectual property by trespassing, burglary, wiretapping and theft or accessing unprotected networks or other illegal activity.

As an employee, intern or consultant of the company, do not disclose any confidential intellectual property to parties outside the organization unless proper approval and due authorization are obtained from the management and the Chief Executive Officer. Also, the employee, intern and consultant must also secure a non-disclosure agreement from the third party.

Please exercise caution when using or handing proprietary information.

Supplier information includes pricing and contact information.

What employees, interns and consultants should do:

Never disclose supplier information to a third party without appropriate approval and a legitimate business reason.

An employee, intern or consultant must also comply with any nondisclosure agreement of the confidentiality provisions of an applicable supplier/vendor agreement.

Handling Employees Personal Information

To the extent permitted by law, YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., collects and maintains personal information which relates to employment such as compensation, payroll account, medical and benefit information. As such, the company also strictly implements the data protection laws of the country and has also enforced personnel and information security policy intended to protect personnel information wherever it is stored or processed.

For example:

The Company handles personal information in accordance with its corporate policies and practices.

Access to personal information is restricted to people with “need to know” only.

Personal information is normally released to outside practices only with the employee’s approval, except when the company needs to release personal information to verify employment, to satisfy legitimate requirements of a company or other entity which is considering acquiring some of YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., business operations, or for appropriate investigatory, business or legal reasons.

Likewise, the same goes true for employees who work with the company who may have access to personal information of others. He / she must ensure that the use and disclosure of personal information is only as permitted by management protocols, policies and practices.

[For more detailed information, refer to the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., Data Protection and Privacy Manual].

Inadvertent Disclosure

Employees, interns and consultants shall be careful and avoid inadvertent disclosure. Never discuss proprietary information that the Company considers confidential or which the company has not made public with, or in earshot of, to any unauthorized person. Activities where inadvertent disclosure could occur include a conversation (in person or telephone) in any public area, in a blog or within a social network. Also, employees, interns and consultants of the Company should not discuss such information with family members or friends. They might innocently or otherwise pass the information to someone else who might take advantage of the shared information.

Third Party Software

All employees, interns, consultants and other members of the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., the community should exercise caution in obtaining third party software from other individuals or sources, including commercial and open source software. Software includes computer programs, databases and related documentation and can be in any stage of development. Software may be on tangible media (e.g. CDs, portable devices and publications) or it may be downloadable or accessible for use online.

To ensure the protection of data and the security of the Company network, employees, interns and consultants must adhere to applicable business unit and ISO procedures before uploading or downloading software from any source onto any computer or device provided by or used primarily for the Company’s business purposes. Employees, interns and consultants will also follow protocols before distributing, accessing or receiving software from inside or outside of the Company.

Use of Company Assets and Premises Policy

Protection of YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., assets, workplace and business interests including compliance with legal requirements, are critical to the Company’s operations and marketplace integrity. All of the Company’s assets - proprietary information such as intellectual property and confidential information as well as physical property and systems - should only be used to conduct business or for purposes authorized by the management. This obligation applies whether or not an employee, intern or consultant developed the information himself / herself and it applies, by law, in all countries where the Company does business.

The Company's physical property and systems include equipment, facilities, information and communication systems, corporate charge cards and supplies. Meanwhile, property and systems, including connections to the Internet, should also only be used for appropriate purposes. Use of these infrastructures for limited duration for personal reasons, does not violate company policies and if usage does not interfere with performing an employee, intern or consultant's duty may be permitted by the management. However it is never permissible to use the Company systems for visiting Internet sites that feature sexual content or gambling, that advocates intolerance of others, or that are inconsistent with the company values and business interests. It is also inappropriate to use them in a manner that interferes with the individual's workplace productivity or the productivity of others.

Employees who are dismissed or have their employment terminated with the Company for whatever reason are obliged to return any confidential files and company-related information and delete them from their personal devices.

All employees are required to sign a non-disclosure agreement as a condition of employment.

Employees, interns and consultants who improperly use or disclose trade secrets or confidential business information will be subject to disciplinary actions including termination of employment and other legal remedies, even if they do not actually benefit from the disclosed information.

Clients and other parties whom YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., do business entrust the Company with important information relating to their business. Hence, it is the company's policy to consider all company-related information as confidential and will not be disclosed to external parties or to employees without a "need to know." If an employee is uncertain whether certain information is considered confidential, he/she should seek advice from his/her supervisor or manager.

This policy is intended to alert employees to the need for discretion at all times and not to inhibit normal business communications.

This policy is binding even after separation of employment.

Cybersecurity and Use of Digital Devices

The following guidelines have been established for using the internet, cell phone and email in an appropriate, ethical and professional manner:

Internet, Company-provided equipment (e.g. cell phone, laptops and computers) and services may not be used for transmitting, retrieving or sorting any communications of a defamatory, discriminatory, harassing or pornographic nature.

The following actions are prohibited:

- using disparaging, abusive, profane or offensive language; creating, viewing or displaying materials that might adversely or negatively reflect upon the Company or be contrary to the Company's best interest; and
- engaging in any illegal activities, including piracy, cracking, extortion, blackmail, copyright infringement, and unauthorized access of any computers and Company-provided equipment such as cell phones and laptops

Employees may not copy, retrieve, modify or forward copyrighted materials, except with permission and approval from the management.

Employees must not use the Company-owned system in a way that disrupts its use by others. Employees are prohibited from sending or receiving files that are not related to work.

Employees should not open suspicious emails, pop-ups or downloads. Contact the HR Head with any questions or concerns to reduce the release of viruses or to contain viruses immediately.

Internal and external emails are considered business records and may be subject to discovery in the event of litigation. Be aware of this possibility when sending email within and outside the Company.

Internet Usage

The Company's internet connection is primarily for business, however, it can also be used for personal purposes as long as it does not interfere with an employee, intern or consultant's job responsibilities. Also, the company expects everyone to halt any personal activities that slow down the internet connection.

Furthermore, employees, interns, consultants and other members of the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., community must not use the company's internet connection to:

- Download or upload obscene, offensive or illegal material
- Send confidential information to unauthorized recipients
- Invade another person's privacy and gain access to sensitive information
- Download or upload pirated movies, music, material or software
- Visit potentially dangerous websites that can compromise our network and computer's safety
- Perform unauthorized or illegal actions like hacking, fraud or buying/selling illegal goods

Using Personal Social Media at Work

As the internet takes an ever increasing role in the workplace and our personal lives, employees, interns and consultants must always be mindful of your responsibilities while on duty or performing your job functions.

Employees, interns and consultants are permitted to access his / her personal media accounts at work. However, the Company expects him / her to act responsibly and is also expected to stay productive.

Below are the guidelines for using social media while on duty:

Browsing social media (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Youtube and other sites not related to work) during office hours is strictly prohibited.

Employees, interns and consultants are prohibited from posting financial, confidential, intellectual property, sensitive or proprietary information about the Company, our clients, employees or applicants.

Employees, interns, consultants and other members of the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., community should not post obscenities, slurs or personal attacks that can damage the reputation of the Company, its clients, employees, interns and applicants.

Employees, interns, consultants should avoid posting any defamatory, offensive or derogatory content. If such content is posted against a colleague, client or partner, it is a violation of the Company's anti-harassment policy. The one who posted such content will be faced with appropriate sanction depending on the gravity of the offense which could include dismissal.

When posting on social media sites, employees, interns and consultants must use the following disclaimer when discussing job-related or company-related matters "The opinions expressed on this site are my own and do not necessarily represent the views and opinion of the Company."

Speaking Publicly and/or Using Social Media Representing the Company

When speaking out on a public issue or in a public forum. Employees, interns and consultants may do so as an individual. Unless, an employee or consultant is authorized to release a public statement, you should not give the appearance of speaking or acting on the Company's behalf. This is particularly important with the rise of social networking media. Any misinformation can impact the company's image and reputation.

Should an employee or consultant be authorized to handle and represent the company in social media sites or speak on the Company's behalf, he / she is expected to protect the company's image and reputation.

What an employee or consultant should do when representing the Company online:

- Be respectful, polite and patient.

- Avoid speaking on matters outside your field of expertise when possible.

- Follow the Company's confidentiality and data protection policies.

- Observe laws governing copyrights, trademarks, plagiarism and fair use as well as the 21st Century Communications and Video Accessibility Act (CVAA) in posting video content.

- Coordinate with the PR/Marketing Department when sharing any major-impact content or company-related announcements or information.

- Avoid deleting or ignoring comments for no reason.

- Correct or remove any misleading or false content as quickly as possible.

- Never share intellectual property or confidential information.

Use of Cell phones or Mobile Phones at Work

The Company allows the use of cell phones or mobile phones at work. However, the use of such personal devices should not cause distractions to other employees, interns or consultants and colleagues from their work or disrupt the workplace and regular business operations. Hence, the company shall implement these guidelines:

- Employee shall use cell phone or mobile phones in a manner that benefits your work (business calls, productivity apps, calendars etc)

- No personal calls shall be attended inside the office premises. Employees, interns and consultants shall attend personal calls outside the workplace. All personal calls should be limited to not more than (5) minutes.

- Avoid playing games on cell phones or texting excessively while at work or on duty unless, an employee, intern or consultant is replying to official business transactions.

- Do not use cell phones or mobile phones for any reason while driving a company vehicle.

- Do not use cell phones or mobile phones to record confidential information.

- Do not download or upload inappropriate, illegal or obscene material using our corporate internet connection using personal devices.

Right to Monitor

Ownership of all Company-supplied technology and Company-related work records shall belong to the Company and not to the employee, intern or consultant of YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., who has the privilege to use such devices. The Company shall routinely monitor the use of Company-supplied technology. Inappropriate or illegal use of communications may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

The Company reserves the right to monitor assets and work environments in compliance with applicable national and local laws and this Handbook. The company monitors these devices to promote safety, prevent criminal activity, investigate alleged misconduct and security violations, manage information systems or for other business reasons.

Even though limited personal use of company assets is permitted. You should have no expectation of privacy when you use a Company-owned workspace, computer, voicemail or system to create, access, transmit, or store information. Such information will be accessible to the Company even if it is password-protected, deleted by the user, or in a locked area.

The Company's Right to Inspection

All employees should understand that YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., has the right to inspect their use of the company assets and infrastructure including their communications using the Company's assets.

Thus, you should also understand that the use of company assets and infrastructures is not considered private. As such, the Company reserves the right at any time to monitor, recover through technical or other means and review employee communications including emails from personal email accounts, records, files and other items the Company finds through or in its systems, assets and any other Company areas or provided facilities for any purpose.

Additionally, to protect its employees, assets and business interests, the Company may ask to search an employee's personal property including briefcases and bags, located on or being removed from the Company premises. If you use personal electronic devices for company-related work, then those devices may also be examined by YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc. As such, all employees are expected to cooperate with all such requests.

Employees, however, should not access another employees work space, personal property including email and electronic files, without prior approval and authorization from the management.

Lost and Found

Any items found in the office or company premises must be immediately turned over to the Human Resource Department.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Introduction

This Code of Conduct establishes a set of standard expectations for employees conduct. Ethical behavior is an essential part of your position with YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., and is a personal responsibility that should be taken seriously. The Company shall expect every employee, intern and consultant to be accountable for their actions and to support the values, principles and standards upon which the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., business reputation rests. This Code of Conduct ("The Code") is a guide to help you live up to the Company's values, abide by its policies and respect the best interest of our customers, stakeholders and shareholders.

As such, employees are expected not to engage in any on-duty conduct that would impair their job performance, cause damage to the Company or any of its property, jeopardize their own safety or the safety of the others or negatively affect the Company's reputation or image.

Even if employees are off-duty but is wearing clothing with YAHSHUA Outsourcing logo or driving a vehicle with the company logo or owned by the Company, the public will see you as a representative of YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., and your conduct affects the company's reputation and image.

The Role of Managers

As a leader, you have a special responsibility for setting the culture and the work environment for the team. The way you make decisions, and respond to concerns, different opinions and even negative news will set the foundation of trust with your respective teams, customers and stakeholders. Your success and the success of your team depends on the trust you build together.

If you have supervisory or lead responsibilities, you have additional responsibility to take these actions:

Educate your employees on this Code of Conduct and the requirements applicable to your employees
Promote compliance with this Code of Conduct and other relevant policies, standards and procedures
Report suspicious or allegations of employee misconduct in accordance with company procedures

Purpose

The Code of Conduct shall reaffirm the Company's commitment in implementing ethical business principles. The purpose of this Code is to describe principles of business conduct and to provide guidance in ethical decision making.

This Code shall also outline the basic legal obligations of all YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., employees interns and consultants. They must be aware of their conduct themselves in accordance with the highest ethical standards.

Although the Code lays out fundamental principles of ethical and legal conduct, it cannot anticipate every ethical dilemma or situation an employee, intern or consultant may encounter in performing their daily work. If at any time an employee is unsure about the proper course of action, the employee must discuss their concerns with their direct supervisor or manager.

Scope

The Code of Conduct applies to all employees, interns, consultants and the members of the Board of Directors of YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc.

Compliance

Compliance with the Code is mandatory. As an employee of YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., you are expected to be familiar and to comply with the Code of Conduct in the performance of your duties. All employees shall be required to sign an Acknowledgement Receipt to ensure that the Code of Conduct has been communicated.

Furthermore, it is the Company's policy to comply with all laws and regulations that apply to its business. Penalties for failure to comply with national and local laws are severe and can result in fines, lawsuits, loss of business privileges and in some cases, imprisonment.

If you have any questions about interpreting or applying the Code of Conduct or any of the Company' Guidelines and Policies, it is your responsibility to consult your manager or the HR Department for clarifications. Your managers, supervisors and the HR team shall always be available to explain and clarify matters with you. A violation or non-compliance of this Code can result in disciplinary actions including up to termination of employment and/or prosecution.

Disciplinary decisions can vary depending on the severity of the misconduct and the employee's disciplinary record, years of service and job duties.

Responsibilities to Report

All employees are expected to communicate honestly and openly to their supervisors, managers and other personnel in a leadership position in good faith to raise concerns. It shall be the responsibility of everybody to report any known or suspected unethical conduct which may be a violation to the Code committed by anyone who is in any way associated with the company.

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., shall be committed to protect all employees who report unethical conduct from reprisal as well as offer any necessary support. However, should an employee make a report of unethical conduct they should do so in good faith.

If you know of, or have good reason to suspect an unlawful or unethical situation or believe you are a victim of prohibited workplace conduct, immediately report the matter to your supervisor or manager.

When concerns are raised, supervisors and managers or any in the leadership positions are expected to:

- Listen to understand.
- Take concerns seriously.
- When appropriate, contact human resources to investigate.
- Take any appropriate action in response to investigation findings.
- In a timely manner, follow-up with the employee that raised the concern.

Non-Retaliation Policy

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., will promptly review your report of unlawful or unethical conduct. The Company shall not tolerate threats or acts of retaliation against you for making a report of a possible violation of our Code, or the law. If you believe you are being retaliated against, please contact the Human Resource Manager.

Investigations

The Company shall take all allegations of misconduct seriously and shall take appropriate action. All reported violations of the Code of Conduct are investigated by one or more of the following:

- Management
- Human Resources
- Internal Audit
- The Board of Directors
- Law Enforcement Agencies

Note: Never obstruct or fail to cooperate with an investigation.

Work Environment

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., shall strive to maintain a healthy, safe and productive work environment free from discrimination and harassment whether based on race, color, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, national origin, genetics, disability, age or any other factors that are unrelated to Company's legitimate business interests. The Company shall not tolerate sexual advances, actions or comments, racial or religious slurs or jokes, or any other comments or conduct that, in the judgement of the Company creates, encourages or permits an offensive or intimidating environment.

Other prohibited conduct on the work environment includes:

- Violent behavior or threats
- Possession of weapons of any type
- Use, distribution, sale or possession of illegal drugs or any other controlled substance except for approved medical purposes
- Being under the influence of illegal drugs, controlled substances used for non-medical purposes or alcoholic beverages in the workplace

Also, if the management shall find that your conduct on or off the job can adversely affect your performance, that of other employees, or the Company's legitimate business interests, you shall be subject to disciplinary actions, including and up to termination of employment.

Furthermore, acts or threats of physical violence, intimidation, harassment or coercion, stalking, sabotage and similar activities shall not be tolerated. Employees who engage in these acts or threats of violence shall be terminated.

Reporting, Recording and Retaining Operational Information

The Company operates in an information-driven environment. As such, all employees are expected to record and report any information accurately, completely and honestly. All employees shall not make misrepresentations or dishonest statements to anyone that may compromise the operation and integrity of the business.

If you believe that someone may have misunderstood you, promptly correct the misunderstanding. Reporting inaccurate or incomplete information or reporting information in a way that is intended to mislead or misinform those who receive it, is strictly prohibited and could lead to serious consequences.

Examples of dishonest reporting include but are not limited to the following:

Submitting an expense account for reimbursement of business expenses not actually incurred, or misrepresenting the nature of the expense claimed.

Failing to properly record time worked on a billable client project, whether or not such time is charged to the client

For those eligible for overtime, failing to record all hours worked including all overtime hours which must be management approved in line with YOWI guidelines

Providing inaccurate or incomplete information to YOWI management during an internal investigation, audit or other review, or to organizations and people outside the company such as external auditors

Making false or misleading statements in external financial reports, environmental reports, legal documentation, or other documents submitted to or maintained for government agencies.

Should the Company conduct an authorized internal investigation and/or review relating to these matters, all employees are required to fully submit, comply and cooperate during the course of such investigations.

Proper Reporting of Financial Transactions

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., shall follow strict accounting principles and standards. All employees who engage in finance and accounting shall report financial information accurately and completely and to have appropriate internal controls and processes to ensure that accounting and financial reporting complies with appropriate national and local laws.

The rules of accounting and financial reporting require the proper recording of and accounting for, revenues, costs, expenses, assets, and liabilities. If you have responsibility for or involvement in these areas, you must understand and follow these rules:

You are accountable for any corporate funds over which you have control.

Follow the set of procedures in handling, recording and protecting funds.

When spending YOWI funds, ensure that the company receives good value for the expenditure.

Do not use company funds for personal benefit.

Compliance with the internal controls, financial transactions guidelines and procedures is expected at all times. The Company's books of account, reports, records and other documents must accurately account for and report all assets, liabilities and transactions affecting YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc.

We must:

maintain accurate and reliable records relating to business, customers and employees to meet our legal and financial obligations and in accordance with our accounting and business practices

not intentionally cause the Company's books or records to be incorrect or misleading in any way and relevant information should never be omitted, deleted or concealed

Not create or participate in the creation of any record intended to conceal anything that is improper

Not make unauthorized or personal purchased on company credit cards, through purchase orders or by other means

No incur unreasonable expenses on behalf of the company

Properly and promptly record all disbursements of funds

Cooperate and ensure full disclosure in communications with both internal and external auditors and with the Chief Financial Officer and his group;

Promptly disclose knowledge of any untruthful or inaccurate statements or records intentionally made;

Promptly bring to the attention of your manager any transactions that did not seem to have a legitimate commercial purpose and

Information must only be destroyed in accordance with approved retention schedules and procedures

Furthermore, all employees are prohibited from assisting anyone to account improperly or make false or misleading financial reports. Never provide advice to anyone outside of the Company including clients and business partners about how they should be recording and other assets and liabilities unless you are authorized to do so.

Employee Relationships

The Company is committed to ensuring relationships between employees are appropriate and harmonious. Thus, the company mandates all employees to behave professionally and to abide with the following guidelines:

Fraternization

Fraternization refers to dating or being friends with your colleagues. In this Policy "dating" equals consensual romantic relationships and sexual relations. Non-consensual relationships that constitutes to sexual violence and/or harassment is explicitly prohibited. Violation to this policy shall result in immediate termination of employment.

Dating a Colleague

Employees who are dating a colleague are expected to maintain professionalism and to keep personal discussions outside the workplace. All employees are also obliged to respect colleagues who are dating each other. The Company shall not tolerate sexual jokes, malicious gossip and improper comments. If you witness this kind of behavior, please report it to the HR.

Friendship at Work

Employees who work together may naturally form friendships either in or outside of the workplace. The Company encourages relationships between peers, as it can help all employees to communicate and collaborate more effectively and efficiently. However, the Company expects all employees to focus on their work. Personal disputes among co-workers should not cause any disruption or delay in business operations. Any misunderstanding should be cleared up immediately.

Solicitation and Distribution

In the interest of maintaining a professional business environment and preventing interference with work and inconvenience to others, solicitation and/or distribution of material to other employees or guests for any purpose during the employee’s working time is prohibited. Distribution of materials in all work areas, as well as solicitation and distribution of materials by non-employees is prohibited.

Working time includes the working time of both the employee doing the soliciting and distributing and the employee to whom the soliciting or distributing is being directed.

Levels of Disciplinary actions

Verbal Warning

The immediate superior counsels the employee following the act of the offense in an effort to make the erring employee understand the proper conduct and work behaviour. For purposes of reference, all verbal warnings must have an official written form field in the personnel file of the employee.

Written Warning

The employee receives a written notice of disciplinary action following the repetition of minor offenses previously committed. The purpose of a written reprimand is to make certain that the employee is fully aware of the misconduct committed thereby enabling him / her to avoid recurrence of the offense.

Suspension

The employee receives a written Notice of Suspension following the act of a major offense or an act of repeated minor offense. Disciplinary suspension denotes the number of suspension days whereby an employee will temporarily disengage from work without pay. The purpose of suspension is to assure that the employee understands the seriousness of the misconduct, and that further violation would result in heavier and longer suspension days without pay or the maximum sanction of termination for a cause.

Termination

The employee shall be terminated or dismissed from employment as a cause for committing an intolerable and irreconcilable offense. This may include but are not limited to breach of contract, trust and confidence of the Company to an employee. .

Code of Discipline

In keeping with our high standards, all employees shall conduct themselves in a professional and safe manner at all times and to respect the rights of others. Your behaviour at work reflects upon both you and the Company.

While we hope and expect the need for disciplinary action will be rare, if job performance, attitude or conduct falls short of our established standards, appropriate action will be taken. Such action will range from verbal and written warnings to termination. As a general rule, an increasingly severe penalty shall be given each time an offense is committed. Some types of misconduct however, are so intolerable that termination of employment, as well as legal proceedings, may be imposed for the first offense.

Below are the list of offenses / violations and their corresponding penalties to be used as a guideline and reference. The imposition of sanctions to employees must at all times follow due process. All disciplinary actions listed below shall be imposed and carried-out by the Human Resource Department.

	CLASS A	CLASS B	CLASS C	CLASS D
1 ST Offense	Documented Verbal Warning	Written Warning	Suspension of 15 days	Termination
2 nd Offense	Written Warning	Suspension of 1-7 days	Suspension of 30 days
3 rd Offense	Suspension of 1-7 days	Suspension of 15 days	Termination

4 th Offense	Suspension of 15 days	Suspension of 30 days
5 th Offense	Suspension of 30 days	Termination
6 th Offense	Termination

Classification of Offenses

To ensure uniformity,consistency, and fairness in the implementation of Company rules and regulations, offenses / violations are categorized under the following classification with the corresponding penalties enumerated as follows:

Sample List of Offenses per Class

CLASS A OFFENSES
Violation Against Conduct and Proper Decorum
1	Improper use of uniform.Not wearing the prescribed uniform while on duty. Wearing clothing other than the authorized for use by the Management. Wearing unauthorized articles, jewelries or ornaments together with the uniform i.e. armbands, emblems, political slogans, pins and/or buttons.
2	Neglect of personal cleanliness and hygiene. Improperly dressed, preened and groomed for work. Long hair beyond grooming standards; growing a beard and moustache.
3	Dyeing hair with colors other than the approved shades under the grooming standards. Failure to follow grooming standards of the Company.
4	Staying, strolling or loitering in the premises after work shift or on a day-off without official reason.
5	Failure to report to the Human Resource Department of any changes in residence or personal address or any personal data within at least five (5) days from the date of change.
6	Failure to follow the proper procedures for a leave / overtime/ under time/ working on rest day / working on a holiday application.
7	Failure to time in and time out
8	Eating and/or drinking at areas or spaces intended for carrying out job functions except at the pantry and designated areas for dining.
9	Committing any other behavior or acts that slightly violate discipline and are not found or indicated in this classification
Violation Against Company Productivity
10	Failure to provide advance notice to the department head as prescribed of one’s inability to report for work or tardiness
11	Meeting and entertaining personal visitors during work hours without permission
12	Making excessive personal calls during working hours and/or at places other than those desginated or allowed by the Company
13	Failure to file any absence due to illness immediately upon reporting for work after an absence due to sickness
Violation Against Property and Security
14	Using Company Identification Card of another employee for whatever purpose
15	Consenting another employee to use one’s own Company Identification Card for whatever purpose
16	Failure to bring Company Identification Card during office hours and business meetings in or outside the office
17	Privately meeting or taking relatives or friends inside the Company premises; allowing relatives or friends to go sightseeing and use any of the equipment and facilities of the Company without authorization
18	Unauthorized entry to the Company premises after closing hours
19	Unauthorized use of Company properties and/or equipment

CLASS B OFFENSES
Violation Against Conduct and Proper Decorum
1	Asking another employee to time in and time out on your behalf
2	Logging another employee's time in and time out on his / her behalf
3	Unauthorized under time for more than 30 minutes but less than 2 hours, or leaving the office or place of work in an unofficial matter for less than 2 hours of any work period
4	Wearing of Company uniform in unofficial places (bar, disco pub, casino and the likes)
5	Being impolite or showing disrespectful conduct to co-employees, clients and visitors
6	Overly fraternizing with clients and visitors
7	Any other act/s, violation/s or behavior similar to this listing but are not specifically indicated as a disciplinary violations
Violation Against Company Productivity
8	Leaving the department or work area without the permission of the Supervisor, or without proper relief or hand-over. Loitering, wasting productive time, or being in locations/areas other than the assigned work area
9	Exchanging shifts with another employee without authorization
10	Sleeping, daydreaming, unauthorized resting, playing cards, watching TV, playing computer games, opening inappropriate websites or sites that are not relevant to your job functions and/or opening social networking sites
11	Horse playing (making fun or joking around) that disturbs other employees at work; eating/taking nibbles, reading books and newspapers; taking naps; chatting; talking; laughing aloud; and/or acting improperly in business areas within the premises and during working hours
12	Failure to submit an official medical certificate for absence incurred due to illness
13	Leaving post without permission or slowing down work by giving excuses
14	Providing poor service or failure to comply with established policies and procedures that cause dissatisfaction to clients or co-worker resulting to complaints
15	Making willful acts or behaviour that affect and/or disrupt normal work of other employees, the department of the Company
16	Smoking within the Company premises
17	Holding, organizing, initiating, and/or participating in recreational activities within the Company premises during working hours other than those events and activities authorized and facilitated by the Company
18	Failure to cooperate in harmony with other employees in consonance with his /her duties and responsibilities which affects the smooth operations of the Company
19	Being tardy from work for at least 2 hours and being absent from work without prior notice, authorization and/or valid reason
20	Unauthorized extension or abuse of break periods ; unauthorized use of break hours
21	Unnecessary or unauthorized reading while on duty except reading of relevant materials pertaining to an employee's work or those provided by the Company in connection with an employee's direct work responsibility
22	Failure to report for overtime or holiday work after having been given notice to do so
Violation Against Property and Security
23	Using Company Identification Card of another employee for whatever purpose
24	Removing or moving Company furniture , equipment, tools and other property without authorization
25	Refusing to submit to reasonable body search and inspection of personal properties within the Company premises without justifiable reasons by Security personnel or representative of the Management
26	Failure to report and/or immediate surrender of Lost and Found items
27	Abusive use or serious waste of Company resource
28	Putting up notices, announcements, posters within the Company premises without authorization from the management
Violation Against Health and Safety

29	Keeping or using any flammable or explosive chemicals, devices, materials that may endanger the life and/or security of employees, visitors of the Company
Attendance Related Violations
30	Exceeding three consecutive days absences in a month (attendance limits resets at the start of the year)
31	Exceeding three times tardiness in a month (tardiness limits reset at the start of the year)
32	Absence without Official Leave (AWOL - accumulated and does not reset) ; AWOL also includes filed leave not approved by authorized supervisor

CLASS C OFFENSES
Violation Against Conduct and Proper Decorum
1	Reporting under the influence of alcohol and illegal drugs
2	Insulting, teasing, cursing and causing injury to co-employees, clients and company visitors
3	Circulation, reading, copying or showing of pornographic publications, materials, or video products within Company premises
4	Repeated violation of the Code of Discipline after having given two (2) warnings (verbal or written warning) for offenses committed
5	Using foul words and being impolite during work time or within the Company premises
6	Insubordination. Not following or disregarding a superior's work instructions and/or assignment that may lead to the delay and error to work output
7	Soliciting or asking for gifts, tips, money or any articles whether directly or implied for any reasons
8	Intentionally concealing knowledge on violations committed by other employees concerning discipline or Company rules and regulations
9	Being impolite or rude towards Managers, Supervisors, co-worker or client. Displaying in any form of unbecoming behaviour; disrespect; arrogance etc. Including making threats or challenging a Supervisor, co-worker, client and customers in an argument or a confrontation.
10	Being rude, discourteous, offensive, insulting and disrespectful in service whether to internal or external customers
11	Arguing with Supervisors and/or clients and/or refusal to accept, receive tasks without valid reason
12	To do an act with a purpose of seeking personal gains or advantage over other employees. Abuse of authority or using one's position and authority in order to retaliate to others
13	Rumor mongering or creation of vicious slander against co-employees, clients and customers
14	Failure to follow instructions of superiors without valid reasons, or not accepting or submitting to necessary inspections conducted by superior or inspections authorized by the Company.
15	Committing other acts which would be scandalous in nature of in any manner disturbing to the peace and order inside the Company premises whether on or off duty
16	Sharing or divulging one's salary to another employee
17	Looking at pay slip of another employee
18	Engaging another employee in a fight during working hours and/or within Company premises
19	Planting evidence against another employee to make it appear that he/she has committed an offense and/or to evade responsibility for the act of offense.
Violation Against Company Productivity
20	Staying away from work without authorized leave. Malingering to be ill to avoid work.
21	Refusing work transfer/assignment without valid reason. Refusal to take up the new position and to perform its responsibilities
22	Failure to act or perform work based on service or work standards. Failure to comply or follow work or service standards
23	Failure of a supervisor to take steps to prevent, rectify and/or report hi/her knowledge of any violation of this manual or of other Company rules

24	Unauthorized solicitation of money or any form of contribution from clients or co-employees within the Company premises or during work hours
25	Holding and/or conducting unauthorized meetings during office or work hours within the Company premises
Violation Against Property and Security
26	Causing damage through carelessness or negligence to other properties whether belonging to the Company, co-employee, clients, customer and/or visitors
27	Failure to immediately report loss of damage to Company property
28	Bringing into or taking out from the Company premises any Company property without authorization
29	Removing,defacing, tearing, and mutilating or altering the contents or form of any official posters, announcements, memorandum, circular and other Company document posted on the Bulletin Board by the Management or the HR
30	Allowing unauthorized individuals to enter or gain access into any prohibited and/or restricted areas within the Company premises
31	Refusal to participate in any administrative and/or security investigation either as the offender or having knowledge of the offense, wherein the statement of the employee in question is vital for the conclusion of the case
32	Loss of Company properties (keys, mobile phone, laptops and other company-owned equipment and tools)
Violation Against Health and Safety
33	Doing acts that cause damage to environmental sanitation and hygiene by spitting on walls or floors and littering (throwing garbage anywhere in the premises), vandalism (putting up unauthorized posters or scribbling on walls)
34	Creating or contributing to poor housekeeping and/or unsanitary conditions in the workplace
35	Drinking of alcoholic beverages within the Company premises and. or while working hours
36	Unauthorized use of cooking equipment in the Company, playing with fire, or using fire-fighting equipment with no just-cause, and/or without permission
37	Smoking in high-risk areas within the Company such as the pantry, near the LPG storage room, storeroom, kitchen etc.
38	Neglect of duty or violation of operating rules and regulations that may endanger other people’s lives or damage to equipment.For superiors,giving orders and instructions to employees to operate machines and equipment against established rules that may result to accident
39	Failing to report any industrial accident or injury involving employees or clients
40	Using, removing or tampering with fire protection equipment for a purpose other than fire fighting
41	Failure to report any communicable or contagious disease the employee has contracted or any knowledge of a communicable or contagious disease and illnesses that a co-worker,visitor or client may have that risks the health of other employees

CLASS D OFFENSES
Violation Against Conduct and Proper Decorum
1	Harassment in any manner, sexual or otherwise, and/or blackmail
2	Dishonesty in any form
3	Falsifying Company record/s and/or documents
4	Giving false or misleading information in applying for employment or seeking to qualify for any preference or benefit or during investigation
5	Display of promiscuous and immoral acts. Indecent, lewd or immoral conduct as well as grossly indecent appearance, or any act or behavior violating common decency and morality within the Company premises
6	Forging, altering copying, imitating the signatures of superiors or other Company officials, co-workers, clients for personal advantage,making false certifications or for any reason or purposes
7	Soliciting and receiving whore masters or pimps and introduce prostitutes to them.

	Providing carnal services to clients and customers. Engaging in prostitution.
8	Taking advantage of one's position and powers to seek bribes, take bribes,offer bribes and/or demand bribes. Seeking personal gains at the expense of public and common interest of the Company. Giving relatives and/or friends special and/or unauthorized favors and preferences
9	Any conduct or behavior that causes client's extreme dissatisfaction and complaint, exposure by media and/or criticism by higher authorities
10	Distributing unauthorized written or printed reports within the premises without prior authorization from the Management
11	Gambling in any form within the Company premises or while on duty including financing, collecting, or placing bets of any kind.
12	Fighting in any form resulting to the infliction of bodily harm or injuries within or outside the Company premises while on duty.
13	Loss of confidence and/or breach of trust on any employee occupying a position of trust, Management representative/employee..
14	Giving false testimony, falsifying or doing acts of tampering of any documents,records or information or presenting such records or information in any study, research, inquiry, investigation or proceeding,production reports, vouchers, receipts, time records or application forms and any other documents or records.
15	Offering or accepting anything in exchange for a job,work assignment,favorable work location, promotion, training or other conditions of employment.
16	Borrowing money or soliciting material favors from clients/customers. Borrowing or receiving money, commission, offer of promises or soliciting material offer from clients or customers with which the Company has or may prospectively have a business relationship,for the employee's personal benefit.
17	Obtaining or attempting to obtain materials based on fraudulent or falsified order and collusions with person/s doing so, in which the Company stands to suffer monetary loss
18	Improperly withdrawing Company records, equipment, tools,money, or other assets from the premises without expresses authority
19	Conviction of any criminal offense under the Philippine law
20	Libelous utterance or publications which tend to cause dishonor, discredit, contempt or embarrassment of a guest, an employee, or any officer of the Company.
21	Drunkenness while on duty
22	Threatening or intimidating superiors, other employees, customers and/or their respective relatives with bodily harm or performing illegal and/or immoral act towards these individuals
23	Inducting, encouraging, coercing, and bribing any employee to engage in any practice which violates rules and regulations of the Company
24	Lending money to any individual within Company premises
25	Other conduct or behaviors deserving dismissal from, discharge from or termination of employment.
Violation Against Company Productivity
27	Moonlighting. Use of Company time, premises, equipment, etc., for personal interest, gain and benefit
28	Inciting, instigating, providing or participating in any riot, unauthorized group assembly, work slow-dwon or any work disorders and concerted activities within the premises
29	Abandonment of work. This would mean refusal or continuous refusal to report for work when instructed to do so
Violation Against Property and Security
30	Stealing in any form. Embezzling property or misappropriation of funds of the Company and clients
31	Intentionally or unintentionally concealing Company, co-workers or clients' information
32	Rummaging or going through customer's personal belongings resulting to customer's complaint
33	Unauthorized possession and/or reproduction of any Company keys
34	Providing outsiders and any non-employees,whether a competitor or not, with the Company's confidential and internal information, records/documents or other materials, trade secrets, formula, financial statements, etc.,resulting in the leakage of the Company’s secret and strategies in marketing, finance, personnel affairs and management.

35	Engaging in unauthorized sale of any property for personal benefit or pecuniary gain. Engaging or conniving in anomalous transactions involving Company property and/or assets.
Violation Against Health and Safety
36	Allowing other individuals to operate and/or meddle with COmpany equipment leading to serious damage
37	Pushing, selling, or supplying prohibited drugs and/or its derivatives to employees, clients etc.,or possession thereof inside the premises
38	Unauthorized carrying,possessiong or attempting to bring within Company premises, firearms, explosives or any dangerous lethal weapons such as knives, darts, machetes, “balisongs” and the likes
Attendance Related Violations
39	Unauthorized absence of three consecutive days or more without a valid reason
40	Absence Without Leave (AWOL - accumulated and does not reset) - absences of five working days or more

The above-mentioned offenses / violation and their corresponding penalties shall serve as guidelines and ready reference for everybody and is not supposed to encompass all acts which are deemed offensive to ourselves, to the Company to strictly enforce any of the above rules and regulations shall not be considered as condemnation of such offenses.

The imposition of sanctions to employees must at all times follow due process. All actions pertaining to the above must be cleared with and authorized by the Human Resource Department

Disciplinary Procedures

Every employee has the duty and responsibility to be aware of and abide by the existing rules and policies. All employees shall also be responsible to perform their duties to the best of their ability and to the standards set forth by the Company.

YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., supports the progressive discipline to address issues such as poor work performance or misconduct. Our progressive discipline policy is designed to provide a corrective action process to improve and prevent a recurrence of undesirable behaviour and/or performance issues. It is consistent with our organization values, HR best practices and employment laws.

Outline below are the steps of our progressive disciplinary policy and procedure. The Company reserves the right to combine or skip steps in this process depending on the facts of each situation and the nature of the offense. The level of disciplinary intervention may also vary. Some of the factors that will be considered are whether the offense is repeated despite coaching,counseling and/or training; the employee’s work record; and the impact of conduct and performance issues on the Company.

Steps

The employee will be notified in writing of the informal discussion or disciplinary meeting and advised of the date, time and location, people involved and nature of complaint or reason for the meeting.

If the employee intends to bring / call witnesses to the meeting, he/she should inform the HR Department providing details of the witness prior to the meeting

During the meeting, the employee will be provided with the details of the issues / complaint and given the chance to explain his / her side of the story. Any relevant documentation / evidence will be presented as this point.

If the issues are related to performance, the employee may be given a set of standards for improvement with a specified timescale for the employee to meet those set standards. He/she will also be informed of any future action which may be taken against him /her, should he/she fail to meet standards or repeat the same issue(s).

If the issues are related to misconduct, the meeting may be adjourned for further investigation of the case, or to allow management to consider the decision whether disciplinary action is required and if so, what disciplinary action is taken. In any case, once a decision has been made, the employee will be advised of this in writing.

Separation of Employment

Separation of employment within the Company can occur for several different reasons:

Resignation

Although the Company hopes that your employment with us will be a mutually rewarding experience, we understand that varying circumstances cause employees to voluntarily resign. Resigning employees are required to give the Company thirty (30) working days advance notice in writing before the effectivity date of resignation. The employee shall do his/her utmost to conduct proper, timely and orderly turnover of all his/her accountabilities, including but limited to, documents, company assets, procedures, communications, etc.

Job Abandonment

Employees who fail to report to work or contact his/her immediate supervisor or manager and/or the HR Department for three (3) consecutive workdays shall be considered job abandonment, effective at the end of his/her regular shift on the third day of absence. The HR shall notify the Management at the expiration of the third workday and initiate the paperwork to terminate the employee. Employees who are separated due to job abandonment are ineligible to receive accrued benefits and are ineligible for rehire.

Termination

The Company reserves the right to dismiss employees based on just and authorized causes. Just causes are based on acts attributed to an employee's own wrongful actions and negligence while authorized causes refers to lawful grounds for termination which do not arise from fault or negligence of the employee.

Just Causes for termination include but are not limited to the following:

- Serious misconduct or willful disobedience by the employee of the lawful orders of his supervisors or in connection with his work;
- Gross and habitual neglect by the employee of his duties;
- Fraud or willful breach by the employee of the trust reposed in him by the Company;
- Committing any of the violations which has the corresponding penalty of dismissal as specified in the Company's Code of Discipline; or
- Other similar causes.

Authorized Causes for termination include but are not limited to the following:

- Business reasons such as installation or labor-saving devices, redundancy, or retrenchment (reduction of costs) to prevent losses; or the closing or cessation of operation.
- Health reasons - when employees are found suffering from any disease and whose continued employment is prohibited by law is detrimental to his health as well as to the health of his co-workers.

Clearance Procedure

The Company’s Clearance Procedure is designed to ensure that all outgoing employees are separated from the employment properly; that all company property (e.g. keys, ID, documents, computer data/files) are returned and any outstanding debts owed to the Company. The Employee shall comply with the offboarding requirements before he/she is cleared off. He or she shall obtain clearance from all the departments with which he/she has had transactions. An employee who is not yet cleared remains to be an employee of YAHSHUA and shall continue to be subject to the company policies. In case of non-compliance or violation, he/she shall be issued an NTE, to which he/she must reply to and act on immediately.

Return of Company Property

In the event of a separation from work, the separating employee must return all company property including all electronic devices i.e. mobile phones, laptop, tablet, PCs, identification cards, RFIDs etc. Assets such as documents and media, as well as any devices which contain the Company’s proprietary information shall also be turned over to the HR Department. Employees shall not disclose or use any information acquired during his / her employment with the Company even after separation of work. Failure to return Company owned items may result in deductions from the final paycheck.

Furthermore, YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., shall retain the ownership of intellectual property which you have acquired as an employee and will continue to be so even after you leave the company. Should in any case the Company’s proprietary information or other assets have been wrongfully taken or misused, YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., shall continue to take every step necessary, including legal measures to protect its assets.

Computation of Last Pay

The computation of the Employee’s last pay shall include the 13th Month Pay, if any, remaining salaries and other Employee benefits with financial accountabilities such as debts owed to YAHSHUA, transactions which are either negative, unliquidated, or unmatched disbursements, and may include debts owed to co-workers in YAHSHUA. The Employee must be cleared from YAHSHUA before the Last Pay is released.

Release of Last Pay

The duly computed Last Pay shall be released within 30 working days from the day of the Employee’s clearance.

NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THIS EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

The obligations outlined in this handbook prescribe and regulate the standards of conduct required of all employees of YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc.

Where a staff suspects a breach of the employee handbook may have occurred, they may seek advice from their supervisor, manager or Human Resource.

An employee whose conduct falls below the standards outlined in this handbook will be dealt with in accordance with relevant YOWI procedures. Other parties or members of the YAHSHUA community who do not comply with this handbook may have their association with the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide inc., terminated and rights of access to Company services, facilities or infrastructure, revoked. Some breaches of this handbook may also have consequences under criminal or civil provisions of the Philippine law and its implementing rules and regulations.

AUTHORITIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

ACTIVITY	YOWI OFFICER IN-CHARGE
Design and delivery of training	Human Resource Department

Investigation of an alleged breach of Code	Manager of Human Resources, President of the Company, Appropriate Authorities
Approval of action where policy is breached	President of the Company

CONCLUSIONS

YAHSHUA OUTSOURCING WORLDWIDE INC., aspires to be an extra-ordinary company. On this note, we also recognize that it is impossible to spell out every possible ethical scenario we might face. Instead, we are going to rely on one’s good judgement to uphold a high standard of integrity for ourselves and our company. We expect all of you to be guided by both the Employee Handbook and the spirit of this Code. Sometimes, identifying the thing to do is not an easy feat. If you are unsure, do not be afraid to ask questions or to raise any concern to your Supervisor, Manager or the Human Resource Department.

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK
ACKNOWLEDGMENT, RECEIPT AND CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

I have received a copy of the YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., Employee Handbook and other training materials relevant to my job. I acknowledge receipt of the Employee Handbook and have read and understand its provisions. I understand that this Handbook contains important information on some of the Company's general personnel policies, and on my privileges and obligations as an employee of this Company.

I also understand that I will receive information specific to my position and other training reference materials. It will be my responsibility to read these materials and adhere to their guidelines and standards. I understand that the information in this Handbook is intended to familiarize me with general procedures and practices; this Employee Handbook does not constitute and is not part of a contract, and no employee has any contractual rights to the matters set forth in this Employee Handbook. I am aware that YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., may change, rescind or add to any policies, benefits or practices described in this Handbook. I also understand that my employment with the Company is voluntary and at-will. I have the right to terminate employment at any time, for any reason. Likewise, the Company also has the option to terminate my employment, at any time, and for any valid reason. I acknowledge that that no employee or representative of YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., other than the President has any authority to enter into any agreement for employment contrary to the foregoing, and then only if in a written, signed document.

I understand that I will be given or exposed to materials that are considered proprietary or confidential in nature. Items such as this Handbook, training materials and other informational materials are the sole property of YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., and are intended for my use only. I understand that I may not share, sell, photocopy or distribute any of these materials to any other individual, business or corporation, either during or after my employment with the Company.

Also, depending on my position, I may be exposed to privilege and sensitive information and I understand these are highly confidential and that I shall not reveal or share this information with anyone or for any reason, either during or after my employment with the Company. I understand and agree that I will not divulge any Company related information either verbally or in writing to any other party, at any time, for any reason. I also understand that it is against Company policy to make or possess copies of Company records and documents for any non-Company use, or for the use of others.

I acknowledge and agree that I will adhere to the terms contained in this Employee Handbook and that if I fail to do so, it may lead to disciplinary action up to and including termination of my employment. I have read the Electronic Communication and Internet Use policy and agree to abide by its terms.

I have read the broad Right to Monitor policy and know that my privacy in the workplace is affected and limited by this policy. I understand that, except for employment at-will status, any and all policies and practices may be changed at any time by YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc., and the Company reserves the right to change my hours, wages and working conditions at any time. I recognize the Company’s right to make unilateral changes in the content, interpretation, or application of the Handbook anytime the Company deems appropriate, even if the changes to be implemented have not been communicated, reprinted or substituted in the Handbook or elsewhere.

I understand that revised information may supersede, modify, or eliminate existing policies. Only the President of YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc. has the ability to adopt any revisions to the policies in this Handbook.

I understand and agree that nothing in the Employee Handbook creates, or is intended to create, a promise or representation of continued employment and that employment at YAHSHUA Outsourcing Worldwide Inc. is employment at-will, which may be terminated at the will of either the Company or me. Furthermore, I acknowledge that this Handbook is neither a contract of employment nor a legal document. I understand and agree that employment and compensation may be terminated with or without cause and with or without notice at any time by HCRG or me.

I have received the Handbook, and I understand that it is my responsibility to read and comply with the policies contained in this handbook and any revisions made to it.

Printed Name

Signature

Date

TO BE PLACED IN EMPLOYEE’S PERSONNEL FILE

